ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Any work is a product of collective effort and thinking but the credit is often claimed by an individual. In the process of the development of mental faculties and in the course of academic pursuits, several organisations, institutions and people including parents, teachers, friends and comrades - train, teach, guide, assist and encourage but one identifies only a few in expressing one's acknowledgement.

Firstly I am grateful to Professor K. Seshadri who not merely supervised this work with patience, but also allowed me to pursue my own ideas. He freely discussed several issues, which may not be 'directly' related to the work involved, but useful in understanding the society and life.

I am thankful to Prof. K. Venkateswarlu of Andhra University and Sri K. Kesava Rao of Lyole College, Vijayawada who provided me with considerable material regarding the peasants and agricultural labourers' organisations and agrarian movements in Andhra.
I thank Mrs. Satya Mani and Mr. Iqbal who stood with me in the completion of this work.

I also thank all those leaders of political parties, activists of the peasants' and agricultural labourers' organisations and academicians who spent some of their time with me in discussing the matters related to the topic.

My thanks are also due to Sri R. Venkateswran and S. Rajusiyer who took more strain to type out this work in a rather short time.
