ACKNOWLEDGMENT

A great many people have helped me directly or indirectly in the completion of this research work. I take this opportunity to express my sense of gratitude to all of them.

I am grateful to my research guide Dr. K. G. Pathan, Director, Bharati Vidyapeeth’s Yashawatrao Chavan Institute of Social Sciences, Pune, who has been a constant source of inspiration for the intellectual stimulation and guidance. His timely advice and very illuminating discourses on the subject of this research work and related areas of this research work, made this study possible. I owe a special debt to Dr. V. S. Mangnale Head Department of Economics, H.N. College of Commerce, Solapur for his valuable suggestions.

I am beholden to Shri. Gujar- from BTRA (Bombay Textile Research Association) Solapur, Shri. Mohan Pasnar, Anwar Jamadar, Deepak Navalgund, Diddi, and all the chaddar manufacturers for providing me timely information/ data required for the study.

I am also thankful to all the office bearers of The Solapur Powerloom Association, Directorate of Handlooms and Powerlooms Co-op. Textiles Solapur, Solapur Textile Association, MIDC, DIC, Industrial Estate, BTRA, TEXPROCIL Mumbai, Solapur District Powerlooms Co-op. Societies Federation, Indian Cotton Mills Federation etc., without whose cooperation this research work would not have been completed.

I must acknowledge my debt to Hon’ble Dr. Shivajirao Kadam, Joint Secretary, Bharati Vidyapeeth, Pune for the constant encouragement to complete the research work in time.
I am grateful to all the authorities of Bharati Vidyapeeth, my colleagues and friends for their co-operation at different stages of this research work.

My thanks are also due to Mrs. A.R. Sane and Miss. S.S. Mantri for making this research work colourful and readable through long hours of non-stop typing.

My family also has an important role in the completion of this research work. I thank my wife Mrs. Snehal who cheerfully and ungrudgingly borne the unwanted externalities of my research work and many hours of silence.

Lastly no words can adequately express my debt to my father Late Shri. Shripadrao Pundlik Vernekar, and my mother Smt. Godavari Shripadrao Vernekar for generating in me perennial interest in higher studies.

I also thank several others who contributed in their own way to make this research work a success.
