I thank:

Dr. Kailash C. Upadhyaya for his advice and encouragement and for permitting me to work on a problem of my choice;

Prof. Asis Datta, the Dean, and Prof. P.C. Kesavan, and Prof. Sivatosh Mookerjee, the former Deans, for providing the necessary facilities;

Dr. Bernard Dujon, Dr. Nario Gunge, Dr. James B. Hicks, Dr. Phillip Nagley, Dr. R. Schekman and Prof. Piotr P. Slonimski, without whose generous gift of plasmid, bacterial and yeast strains this work would not have been possible;

Prof. O. Dann for DAPI and Mr. Nalini Mohan for \( \Lambda DNA \);

Alexander, Bashir and Kirpal for technical assistance;

Saini for photographic assistance;

Daya Ram for his excellent laboratory assistance;

my friends and colleagues who were always ready to help in every respect and from whom I learnt a lot;

UGC and CSIR for financial support in the form of a JRF and SRF, respectively.
