The idea for doing research on, "Labour in the Beedi Rolling Industry: A Study of Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh" came out of a series of dialogues with my supervisor Dr. Praveen Jha. His enthusiasm, his inspiration, and his great efforts to explain things clearly and simply, helped to make the tough work of writing a doctoral thesis into a pleasurable activity. Throughout my thesis-writing period, he provided me encouragement, scholarly advice, invaluable guidance, and lots of ideas. I will remain forever indebted to him for his generous guidance.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to Dr. (Mrs.) Bimlesh Yadav, Principal of Sri Aurobindo College (E), University of Delhi, who supported me with solid encouragement emotionally and financially in needy times.

I also express my heartfelt gratefulness to my supervisors during M. A. and M. Phil dissertations Prof. Ganesh Kawadia, School of Economics, Devi Ahilya University, Indore, and Shri R. D. Gadkar, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar National Institute of Social Sciences, Mhow, Indore respectively, who brought me closer to the reality I had initially perceived. Whatever I learnt working with these teachers during MA and M. Phil dissertations also helped me towards the completion of my thesis work.

I owe a great deal to Mr. J. John, the Executive Director of Centre for Education and Communication (CEC), where I worked. Mr. John allowed me to access all the relevant documents on beedi workers available in CEC Library. I also thank Mr. Ravi and Mrs. Sunita of the same organisation for their scholarly support.

I thank Dr. M. M. Rehman and Dr. S. K. Sasikumar, V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, Noida, for their help and constructive suggestions during the initial stage of my thesis work.

I am also indebted to Prof. K. C. Jain of Dr. Harisingh Gour University, Sagar. During my field visit I got invaluable suggestions and inputs during the early stage of my thesis. I am also benefited from informal discussions with Shri Ajit Jain of AITUC, Sagar, Shri Jitendra Pal and Shri Siba Prasad Sahoo, SEWA, Indore and Shri Roopchand Fule, President President of Khetreya Beedi Mazdoor Sangh, Dongargarh, Rajnandgaon, about the functioning of beedi Industry, problems of beedi workers, role of trade unions and other institutions.
I am thankful to Dr. Pramil Kumar Panda who helped me a lot during my field visit. I am also grateful to numerous other people who helped me at various stages in collecting data and conducting field studies. I am grateful to all my respondents, who were kind enough to respond to my queries. I owe a special debt to Dr. Prakash Chandra Jha. Throughout my research work from beginning to binding up, his role as a supporter and advisor has been precious.

I would also like to thank the Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Fund, Teen Murti House, New Delhi for granting me with Doctoral Scholarship

I am also grateful to University Grant Commission (UGC) for providing me with scholarship to continue thesis work.

My special gratitude is devoted to my friends Sandeep, Om, Alankar, Ashutosh, Rafik, Satya, Manikandan, Mahendra, Jitendra, Pradip, Guna, Kanak, Vajanti, Neelam, Josheph, Selvam, Mukesh, Saji, kamini, Prasant sethi, Ganapathi, Akhilanand and Ratikant. They all made my stay in JNU for five years easier. Their company was priceless. Their constant supports, encouragement, the moments we spent together are memorable. It was a wonderful opportunity for me to make friends like them to cherish throughout my life.

I could hardly have completed the thesis without my faithful friends, who supported me in numerous ways, and never stopped asking: "When will it be finished?" Thanks to: Manish, Saimon, Anish, Kapil, Balram, Rajesh, Kalpana, Rashmi, Raju, Ajab, Yogesh, Rakhi, Anurag, Gayatri, Saraswati, Tapas, Arul, Raghunath, Azag Sir, Rupesh, Nalin and Valte.

I am grateful to the staff of JNU Central Library, Nehru Memorial Library, V.V. Giri National Labour Institute Library, Dr. Harisingh Gour University Library, BANISS Library, Hyderabad University Library and the Centre for Education and Communication Library.

Last but not least I thank my parents (Shrimati Anguri Sen and Shri Nandram Sen) and other family members, who always supported me and helped me. Their constant moral support has been a source of inspiration.
