ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This section of the thesis gives me an opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to everyone, who has very kindly and generously helped me reach this stage. In completion of this research innumerable people helped me through their scholarship, intellectual insights, moral encouragement and suggestions.

With great reverence I thank my Supervisor Dr. Asha Sarangi for her invaluable guidance and continuous encouragement over the entire period of my research. I thank her for her moral and intellectual support at all stages of my work. Without her help and consistent guidance, this work would never have attained the status of a "Thesis". My sincere and deep thanks to her. I am equally thankful to Prof. Sudha Pai for her valuable guidance and constant encouragement with critical and constructive comments. Here I take the opportunity to express my appreciation and indebtedness to the entire CPS faculty for accepting me as their student.

This work is a result of constant effort spread over the last few years which has helped me grow in various ways and for this I gratefully acknowledge my debt to Dr. Bishnu N. Mohapatra and Prof. Santosh Rath.

I would also like to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to Mrs. Vidya Dash and Mr. Kishor C. Samal, Mr. Sakti Padhi, Dr. Rabindra Kumar Mahapatra of Nabakrushna Centre for Development Studies, Bhubaneswar, Orissa, who gave valuable insights about the issues taken up for study. Thanks are due to the staff of CYSD and members of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes Research and Training Institute (SCSTRTI), Government of Orissa, Bhubaneswar. My sincere thanks are also due to the officials of the mines and factories, Sarpanch, BDO, DFO, Revenue Inspector of Keonjhar and Sundergarh Districts who helped me to complete this work, inspite of the heavy work pressure. I am obliged with the timely help from the entire staff of ASHRAYA, Mr Laxmidhar Prusty, Mr. Ratnakar Barik, Mr. Niladari Bihari Mishra, Mr. Manas Jena who cooperated and willingly helped me during my field study. Thanks are also due to the staff members in various libraries viz., JNU Library, Nehru Memorial Library, Indian Social Institute Library, New Delhi.

I am indebted to all my respondents who took time out of their busy and tough lives to answer my questions. I would always remember them and remain indebted to their generosity, kindness, honesty, dignity and patience with which they answered my queries. I cherish all the long discussions I had with them all.
I am profusely thankful to all my friends Bijoya, Bony, Swati, Ruchi, Deepika, Sona, Jenny, Nisha for their invaluable company, help and care whenever I needed it.

I acknowledge with great appreciation the support of My Uncle Mr. Ramachandra Deo. My sincere thanks are also due to my husband Raj who stood by me providing emotional support and constant motivation. His words of encouragement helped me tide over toughest of the situations during my research. His keen interest in my work and faith in my abilities was more than I could have wished for.

I acknowledge with great appreciation the moral support and blessings of my Parents who inspite of all the taxing time have always encouraged me to complete this work. Infact without their inspiration this work would have never seen the light of the day. I can't help admiring their patience with my Ph.D and their loving support all these years. I want to dedicate this entire work to them. I thank my Sisters for their unflinching support and care. They were a constant source of encouragement that I could reach out for any moment. Without their love and affection, I would not have been able to pursue my dreams and realize them.

Lastly, I undertake here to thank all those without whose help and concern this document could never be completed in its present form.

(Kamolini Devi)