Contents

Acknowledgement i
Contents iii
Abbreviation v
List of Figure and Tables vi

Chapter 1: Introduction
1.1 A Short History of Peasant Studies 1
1.2 Peasant Studies on India 9
1.3 'Rallying around the Subaltern' 18
1.4 Colonial State and the Social Change 21
1.5 Class as a Historical 'Happening' 27
1.6 Chapterisation 30

Chapter 2: The Impact of Colonial Rule:
Institutional and Material Conditions
2.1 Delineation of Administration Units:
The Formation of Bihar and United Provinces 35
2.2 Evolution of British Land Policy 37
2.3 Profiles of Landlord 41
2.4 Under-proprietary Rights 54
2.5 Regions in Tenancy Right 57
2.6 Landlord-Tenant Relations 68

Chapter 3: Colonial Standardization of Indian Society and the Indigenous Reaction
3.1 Law, Varna, and Caste in Colonial Legal Situation 75
3.2 Emergence of Caste in Colonial View
and its Implementation in the Policy 78
3.3 Appropriation of Colonial Discourses 82
3.4 Impact of Religious Movement on Social Reform 89
3.5 Caste Associations and Caste Movements 92
3.6 Distinct Feature of Caste Movements in North India and Its Implications 98

Chapter 4: Experience of Caste Conflicts
4.1 Local Development of Cow-Protection Movement 103
4.2 'Goala Movement' in Bihar 107
4.3 Implication and Appropriation of Caste Movements and Colonial Discourses 119
4.4 Kisan Sabha in Oudh and 'Mehta's Report' 125
4.5 Mehta's 'Imagined Community' 141
4.6 Differences within the 'Imagined Community'
and Its Socio-Historical Context 145
Chapter 5: The Making of the Kisan as a Class
5.1 From Caste Sabha to Kisan Sabha 150
5.2 Economic Condition behind the Formation of Kisan Sabha 157
5.3 The Impact of the Depression on Peasantry 160
5.4 Kisan Activities During the Civil Disobedience Movement 163
5.5 Reason of Regional Variation in Peasant Activism 175
5.6 Out of the Congress 178
5.7 Reactivation of the Kisan Sabha 183

Chapter 6: Another Cycle of Class Formation
6.1 Lasting Contradictions in Agrarian Society 188
6.2 Bakasht Struggle: Radicalization of Kisan Sabha Movement 197
6.3 Bakasht Struggle in Barhiya Tal: Pressure from Below 203
6.4 Who is the Kisan?: Cracks in the United Front 211
6.5 Cracks in the Lower Levels of Kisan: Kosi Diara Bakasht Struggle 215
6.6 The Second World War and Political turn of the Kisan Sabha 222
6.7 Quit India Movement: Circulation and Appropriation of Propaganda 226
6.8 Quit India Movement: The Character of the Agitation 238
6.9 Reactivation of Agrarian Protests and Vanishing of Kisan 245

Chapter 7: Conclusion
7.1 Epilogue 251
7.2 Summary and Finding 253
7.3 Caste Mobility as Structural Change 259
7.4 The Making of the Kisan as a Class 261
7.5 Validity of the Regional Delineation 262
7.6 Kisan, Modern or Pre-modern Phenomenon? 263

Glossary 265
Bibliography 269