

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to Dr. S.N. Jha, Associate Professor, Centre for Political Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University under whose inspiring guidance this work was carried out and accomplished. I would like to express my warm thanks to other members of the faculty of the Centre for Political Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, for their valuable suggestions. My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. Ali Ashraf, Prof. R. Jagadiswara Rao, Prof. A. Sambasiva Reddy and Dr. M.R. Acharya for their helpful suggestions.

I am personally indebted to members of Meerut Municipal Board whose patient and detailed answers to my questions made this study possible. I acknowledge their valuable help and co-operation. The Municipal authorities of Meerut permitted me to use documents and other reference material. I express my sincere thanks to the staff of the Meerut Municipal Board.

I am highly grateful to the authorities of Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi, and the Indian Council of Social Science Research, Delhi, for awarding me Doctoral fellowship in order to complete my work. Financial help from both these institutions is duly acknowledged.

My sincere thanks are also due to the staff of the Libraries of the Jawaharlal Nehru University, Indian Institute of Technology, and of the Indian Institute of Public Administration, Delhi, for the help which I have received from them during my research work.

To my brother, Mr. M. Zaheer Hussain, I am extremely grateful for the pains he took in reading the manuscript and the proof.

I should also like to express my appreciation of the secretarial and typing assistance rendered by Mr. P. Prabhakara Babu.

A large number of friends were particularly generous in extending to me the needed help and assistance and I express my sincere sense of gratitude to all of them.
