ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This is to say a big thank you to my Supervisor Prof. I.N. Mukherji. I don’t know how I would have completed this thesis had Sir not been so encouraging, patient and accommodating.

There are so many people who have helped me to collect material on India and Bangladesh.

Asish Kothari of Kalpvriksh, P.V. Satheesh of Deccan Development Society and Ajay and Yogini Dolke of SRUJAN helped me during my field trip in India.

Sukanta Sen and Abhijit Roy of BARCIK, and Humayun Kabir helped me get in touch with the various NGOs, policy makers, and government institutions in a short span of time in Dhaka. Whatever material I have been able to collect on Bangladesh is thanks to these people.

Srinivas Uncle and Aunty in whose I stayed during my field trip to DDS, Hyderabad, V.K. Singh and Kasturi didi who were there to guide me whenever I sought their advice, and Manu, who helped me in ways that only she could- I want to thank all of them.

I can never thank my family enough for being there for me, without conditions, all through.
