TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgment........................................................................................................i-ii

List of Tables..................................................................................................................viii

Chapter 1
THE REVITALIZATION AND SPREAD OF HEBREW ........................................1 – 37

The Revitalization Process
   Yiddish versus Hebrew
   Reasons for the initial adoption of Hebrew

The Spread of Hebrew
   Spoken Hebrew
   Efforts to Promote Hebrew

Jewish Multilingualism
   Hebrew
   Hebrew – the debate

Other Languages
   Aramaic
   Greek
   Latin

Jewish Linguistic Situation in Eastern Europe in Palestine

Conclusion

Chapter 2
NATION BUILDING AND POLITICAL DISCOURSE .......... ....... . 38 – 82

Language Ideology and State Building
Hebrewization of names: Forming a new Identity
Place Name and the Zionist Ideology

Language Policy and Political Development
   Information
   Formulation
   Experimentation
Determination
Implementation

Hebrew Language Academy
The Role of Army in Hebrew Teaching
Kibbutz, Hebrew and Nation building
Place of Hebrew in Zionist Ideology
   Theodor Herzl
   Elizer Ben-Yehuda
   Dr. Shemeryahu Levin
   Berl Katznelson
   David Ben-Gurion
   Nahman Shyrkin
   Vladimir-Zeev Jabotinsky

Spiritual-Cultural School of Zionism
   Asher Ginzburg
   S.Y. Agnon

Hebrew in Religious Zionism
   Rabbi Y.A. Cook

Political Struggles to Ensure the Dominant Status of Hebrew
Building a National Identity through Hebrew
   Forging a New Identity as Part of Nation Building
   Promoting Modernization
   Increasing Popular Participation in Politics
   Secularizing Political Culture
   Berlin Haskala and Nation Building
   Hebrew Speech Revival and Nation Building
   National Identity

Conclusion

Chapter 3

EDUCATION AND HEBREW LANGUAGE POLICY .......... 83 – 127

The Role of State in Education
   Social Transformation through Education in Israel
      Functionalist or modernization theories
      Conflict theories
      World institution theories
Empowerment theories

Language in Israeli Society and Education

Language Policy

Organization of language education
Mother tongue education
Second language education
Foreign Language Education
Curriculum, syllabus and materials
Assessment of students
Teacher qualifications and support

Ulpan

The Development of Ulpan

The Structure of Ulpanim
Basic Ulpan
Regular Ulpanim
Kibbutz Ulpanim
Advanced Ulpan
Special Ulpan
Ulpanit
Primary Ulpan
Secondary Ulpan

Assessment
Oral Examination
Written Examination
Grading

Language content in Ulpan

Readjusting the emphasis on Language

Language Education for non-Jewish Population in Israel
Hebrew as a second language for the speakers of Arabic
Teaching of Hebrew to Israeli Palestinians – Historical Sketch
Success or Failure of Language Teaching
Hebrew among the Arabs in Israel: Sociolinguistic Aspects
The Right to Education in Arabic

Conclusion

Chapter 4

HEBREW IN RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPHERE ............... 128 – 170
The Role of State and Religion in cultivating culture: an overview

Religious Stream of Education in Israel
Agudat Israel
State Education Law on 1953
Shas
Funding

Language in Religious Education System

Haredi Attitudes Towards English
The “Particularistic” Attitude
The “Proselytizing” Attitude
The “Pragmatic” Attitude

Imparting Jewish Values and Culture
Teaching the Bible as a common culture
The Covenant – the Cultural essence
The Bible as an agent of acculturation
The Bible in the Israeli public school

Ritual aspects
Music and Jewish Culture

Culture and Conflict: The Silver Lining
Judaism and Jewishness
Judaism and the Arab Population
Changing Cultural Attitude

Conclusion

Chapter 5
HEBREW LANGUAGE IN PUBLIC DOMAIN: ITS IMPLICATIONS .171-214

Creating a consensus for Hebrew
Factors behind Language Choice
Language on Warnings and Prohibitions signs

Language Choice in the Market Place
Choosing a language for communication
Language choice in a bilingual interchange
Accommodating the other Language

Passage and Promotion of Hebrew in Public Domain: Its contributors
Haskalah – Enlightenment and its contribution
Print Media in Israel
Daily Newspapers
Periodicals and Publications for Learning Hebrew
Gesher
Foreign language papers
Political Party Press
Magazines and periodicals
The Press Council
Military Censorship in Israel
Public Space for Minority Languages
The Exclusive nature of the state
The Inclusive Approach
The Right to Arabic Language Media
The Duty to Use Arabic in Official Contexts
Rules Regarding Election Rights in the Arabic Language
The Status of Arabic in Case Law
The Status of Arabic in Legislation
The Status of the Arabic Language
The Status of English
The Status of Russian and Amharic
Conclusion

Chapter 6

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION ............................................. 215 – 233

Language Policy and its implications
Language Policy in Education
Hebrew language Policy and Other Languages
Hebrew Language Policy and Political Goal
Public Manifestation of Language Policy

REFERENCES ................................................................. 237 – 259