ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Professor Yogesh K. Tyagi for his encouraging, inspirational and invaluable guidance. It is his patience, generosity and excellent guidance that moulded my work in the present shape. Besides, I am highly beholden for his immense support that enabled me to participate in the UN Regional Fellowship Programme in International Law, 2005 held at Bangkok, Thailand.

I convey my sincere thanks to Professor R.P. Anand for his kind advice and encouragement for my present work.

I am deeply indebted to Professor V.S. Mani for his precious advice and inspiration during my present study.

I express my sincere thanks to Professor B.S. Chimni for his kind advice and encouragement during my present study.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Professor Bharat H. Desai for his continuous encouragement and advice during my present study.

My sincere thanks are to Dr. V.G. Hegde for his kind support and inspiration during my present work.

I am extremely grateful to Mr. Coen Kompier, Senior Specialist on International Labour Standards, ILO/SRO-New Delhi for his kind and benevolent advice, and constant impetus which immensely helped me complete this work.

I express my earnest thanks to Mrs. Raj, Librarian, ILO/SRO-New Delhi for her timely assistance during my visits.

I am thankful to Dr. Chandra Jeet for his kind help towards the completion of this work.

My special thanks are to Mr. A.V. Singh, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India; Mr. B.P. Pant, Council of Indian Employers, New Delhi; Mr. R.P.K. Murugesan, Indian National Trade Union Congress, New Delhi; Mr. Binod Kumar Sahu, National Commission for Protection of Child Rights, Government of India; and Mr. Alessandro Chiarabini, Standards and Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, ITC/ILO, Turin, Italy for their kind help and advice during my visits.

My sincere thanks are to the librarian and staff of the libraries of Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi; Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi; International Labour Organisation, New Delhi; ILO International Training Centre, Turin, Italy; ILO Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific, Bangkok, Thailand; Indian Law Institute, New Delhi; and V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, NOIDA.

I am deeply indebted to the Karnataka State Government for providing me merit scholarship for the considerable period of my present study.
I am highly obliged to the University (Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi), for providing me travel grant, which enabled me to attend the UN Regional Fellowship Programme in International Law, 2005 held at Bangkok, Thailand.

I convey my heartfelt thanks to my former teachers, including Professor H.K. Nagaraja, Professor H.R. Sreenivasa Murthy, Professor P. Ishwara Bhat, Mr. T. Vidyashankar, and Mr. Udayakrishna, who have been a source of inspiration during my study.

I should not fail to express my sincere thanks to my friends- Leeladhara B.M., Rajesh Babu R., Dr. Raju K.D., Mohmed Hussain K.S., Sanu M.K., V.K. Singh, Akhilesh Bansal, Sreejith S.G., Asif Rashid, S. Pandiaraj, M.V. Jyoti, Sunil Kumar Agarwal, and Dr. Anwar Sadat for their inspiration and encouragement during my present work.

I am also highly obliged to my friends- Dr. R. Chandrashekar, Deepu M., Narayan Anand T., Biju K.P., Dr. Jayan P.A., Dr. D.R. Doni, Dr. Nagendra M.P., Dr. Prakash Desai, Prakash Jha, Sridhar B., and Durgesh Rai for their kind help and encouragement during my present work.

I am ever grateful to my late parents, my mother Jayalakshmi B.N., elder brothers Dr. B.N. Mahalinga Bhat and Dr. Srikrishna B.N., and family for their constant inspiration, and invaluable and immeasurable sacrifice throughout my studies.

Finally, I am grateful to all who helped me directly or indirectly in completing this thesis work.

JNU, New Delhi
28 March 2008

Udayakumara Ramakrishna B.N.