

Acknowledgement

I have a great pleasure in expressing my special gratitude towards my guide Dr. (Mrs.) Saroja Bhate, Head of the Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit Language, University of Pune. It is really worth mentioning that in spite of her busy and tight schedule of work, she accepted to be my guide.

I am also thankful to Dr. S. M. Shah (Retd. Reader, for Prakrit Languages), University of Pune for suggesting the proper subject for my thesis and giving me a bare outline as to how to proceed and also giving his book 'Yoga -Śāstra by Hemcandrācārya' which is the subject of the present thesis.

I have the great honour to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. G.B. Pande who is wellversed with the knowledge of Yoga Philosophy in ancient Vedic Literature, such as Upaniṣads, Purāṇas, etc. He has from time to time made extremely valuable suggestions which helped me in incorporating various references from the Yoga Philosophy from ancient scriptures, like Upaniṣads, Purāṇas, etc.

I am also extremely grateful to the Late Osho Rajneesh for explaining the basic and fundamental principles of Yoga Philosophy. I had attended his lectures and read his books which enriched my knowledge on the subject. It is he who made all the concepts of philosophy absolutely clear.

I am thankful to my elder brother Shri U.K. Pungaliya for providing a number of books on Jaina Darśana from time to time.

I must mention the help of the two institutions viz. Veda Vijñāna Maṇḍala, Shaniwar Peth, Pune - 30 and Yoga and allied Research Institute, Bhosale Heights, F.C. Road, Shivaji Nagar, Pune - 5, wherein I could get an opportunity to listen to the various lectures on Yoga Philosophy from different experts in this field. That gave me an enthusiasm and an inspiration to study important Upaniṣads and Purāṇas etc. relating to this subject. I also thank Shri Shreenand L. Bapat for the correction of the proofs.

Lastly, I would like to remember my mother Late Smt. Sitabai K. Pungaliya who had sown the seeds of religion and philosophy right from my childhood. My present stage is only because of the seeds which she had sown in my mind.
