Contents

Acknowledgements
Abbreviations

I. Introduction
II. The trimūrti

1. Brahmā - Creator and Creators
   (i) Creation and the Creators in the Vedas
       (1) The primeval divine giant creators
       (2) The fabricators, and the creators
       (3) The general concept of the creators
   (ii) Brahmā the Creator and Brahmās the highest gods
       (1) The meaning of Brahmā
       (2) Date of the god Brahmā
       (3) Brahma, brahmā and the Brahmā
       (4) Bṛhaspati and Brahmā
       (5) Date of the Creator god Brahmā
       (6) Brahmās and Mahābrahmās
   (iii) Brahmā and the Lords of Creation in the Epics
        (1) Status of the Creator Brahmā in the Mahābhārata
        (2) Various uses of the term Prajāpati

2. Viṣṇu - Suggestion to Viṣṇu’s aspect of fertility in relation to Yin-Yang theory
   (i) Viṣṇu as a solar luminary or a sun deity
   (ii) Viṣṇu as a fertility deity
   (iii) Viṣṇu and Yin Yang Theory

3. Śiva (Rudra) - and The Korean Mountain Gods
   (i) General remarks
   (ii) The deity of Harappa-Mohenjodaro
   (iii) Mountain deities of Korea and deity of Harappa - Mohenjodaro
   (iv) Vedic Rudra
   (v) Traits of Rudra as a mountain deity
   (vi) Rudra and mountain deities of Korea
III. The gods connected with natural elements and,
Deified abstract concepts

1. The gods connected with natural elements,
   —And special focus on some less known aspects of Agni
   (i) General remarks
   (ii) Dyaus
   (iii) Prthvi
   (iv) The wind gods
   (v) The rain god
   (vi) The deities of the sun and the moon
   (vii) The deities of fire, Agni
         (1) The ordinary fire
         (2) The lust-fire, or kāmāgni
         (3) The forest fire
         (4) The agriculture fire
         (5) The digestive fire
         (6) The funeral fire
         (7) The non-believers

2. Deified abstract concept
   —The journey of Desire and Death in Indian Mythology
   (i) General remarks and various deified abstract concepts
   (ii) The Journey of Desire
         (1) Kāma in the Rgveda
         (2) Kāma in the Atharvaveda
         (3) Desire in the Mahābhārata
         (4) Desire in Pāli literature
   (iii) The Journey of Death
         (1) Yama in the Rgveda
         (2) Yama in the Atharvaveda
         (3) Yama in Pāli literature
         (4) Yama in the Mahābhārata
   (iv) The Meeting of Desire and Death, The Evil Māra
         (1) General remarks
         (2) Māra and death deities
         (3) Māra and Kāma
         (4) Māra and Indra
         (5) Māra and Śiva
         (6) Māra and Kumara
         (7) Māra and Satan
IV. Indra and other gods (Varuṇa, Kubera)

1. Kubera
(i) General remarks
(ii) Kubera in the Atharvaveda
(iii) Kubera (or Kuvera) in Pāli literature
(iv) Faith and rulership seen in Pāli literature
(v) Kubera’s rulership in the Mahābhārata

2. Varuṇa
(i) General remarks
(ii) Varuṇa’s connection with water(s)
(iii) Varuṇa’s relation with the sun or the moon, and the sky
(iv) Varuṇa as the holder of rta and as the universal ruler
(v) Faith and rulership

3. Indra
(i) General remarks
(ii) The non-believers of the Śrīveda
(iii) Indra (Sakka) in Pāli literature, and his faith in the Buddha
(iv) Indra in the Mahābhārata, and his rulership

V. Semi-divine beings, legendary sages and demons

1. The semi divine beings
(i) The Pīts
(ii) The Gandharvas and the Apsarasas
(iii) The Yakṣas
(iv) The Kinnaras, the Kimpuruṣas and the Siddhas

2. The demons
(i) General remarks
(ii) The Asuras
(iii) The Rākṣasas

3. The legendary sages
(i) General remarks
(ii) The god and the sage in Sanskrit literature
(iii) The god and the sage in Pāli literature
(iv) The sages
(v) The Buddha and the Buddhas
(vi) The Rṣis and the Munis
(vii) The life style of the sage
(viii) The miraculous deeds of the sages
(ix) The sages selected for the chapter
(1) The Vasiṣṭha(s)  312
(2) The Bharadvāja(s)  323
(3) Bhṛgu(s)  342
(4) The ancient mythical Rṣis in Pāli text  358

VI. Conclusion  383

Bibliography  395

Appendixes – Some pictures of mountain deities of Korea