CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS i

INTRODUCTION 1-20

CHAPTER II
UKRAINE’S SEARCH FOR NATIONAL IDENTITY, NATURE OF ITS STATE AND
SOVEREIGNTY AND THE FORMATION OF UKRAINIAN FOREIGN POLICY 21-59

1. Ukraine’s Search for National Identity 23-40
   1.1. Historical Background
   1.2. Transnational Prospective
   1.3. Geopolitical Dimension
   1.4. Economic Prospective
   1.5. Security Aspect
   1.6. Ethno-Cultural Factors

2. Nature of Ukrainian State and Sovereignty 40-50
   2.1. A Quasi State
   2.2. Medium Seized Power
   2.3. Negatively Sovereign State
   2.4. A Transitional State
   2.5. Multi-Ethnic Nation State

3. Formation of Ukrainian Foreign Policy 50-59
   3.1. Defining National Interest
   3.2. Basic Principles of Foreign Policy
   3.3. Objectives of Ukrainian Foreign Policy
   3.4. Means for the Achievement of Foreign Policy Objectives

CHAPTER III
DOMESTIC FACTORS IN UKRAINE’S FOREIGN POLICY 60-100

1. Public and Elite’s Opinion on Foreign Policy 62-72
   1.1. Public Opinion on Foreign Policy
   1.2. Elites Opinion on Foreign Policy

2. Domestic Factors of Foreign Policy 72-95
   2.1. The Political Structural Factor
   2.2. The Economic Factor
   2.3. Military Factor
   2.4. Interest Groups
   2.5. Conflicting Elites
CHAPTER IV
UKRAINE'S GEOPOLITICAL ORIENTATIONS: CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

1. The New European Transformations and Geopolitical Pluralism
   1.1. Nature of the Transformation
   1.2. Characteristics of the transformation
   1.3. Geo-political pluralism: trends and development

2. Strategic Security Landmarks and Geopolitical Orientation of Ukraine
   2.1. Strategic security landmarks for Ukraine
   2.2. Geopolitical orientation of Ukraine
   2.3. Models of Ukraine's geopolitical orientations

3. Foreign Policy Priorities of Ukraine
   3.1. Policy of Neutrality: Nature and Scope
   3.2. Strengthening Bilateral Relations with Neighbours
   3.3. Creation of Regional and Sub-Regional Economic and Security Mechanism
   3.4. Formation of Nuclear Weapons Free Zone (NWFZ)

4. Challenges and Opportunities

CHAPTER V
UKRAINE'S POLICY OF EURO-ATLANTIC INTEGRATION AND EUROPEAN SECURITY: FAILURE AND SUCCESSES

1. Ukrainian Security and its Policy of Euro-Atlantic Integration
   1.1. Ukrainian security concerns and the US
   1.2. Ukrainian Security and the Atlantic Community
   1.3. The West: Kiev’s Ally against Moscow
   1.4. Impact of Russian-US Competition for Influence and Ukrainian Security

2. Ukraine’s Policy of Euro-Atlantic Integration: Cooperation and Formation of Legal Ties
   2.1. Ukraine and the Central European Initiative (CEI)
   2.2. Ukraine and the ‘Visegard & CEFTA
   2.3. Ukraine and the Council of Europe
   2.4. Ukraine and the West European Union (WEU)
2.5. Ukraine and NATO
2.6. Ukraine and the European Community (EC)
2.7. Ukraine and the European Union (EU)

3. Ukraine-West Relations: Causes of Its Failure and Implications

3.1. Development of Ukraine-West Relations
3.2. Causes of the Failure of Ukraine-West Relations and Implications

CHAPTER VI
UKRAINIAN FOREIGN POLICY TOWARDS RUSSIA AND COMMONWEALTH OF INDEPENDENT STATES (CIS)

1. Ukraine-Russian Relationship and the Existence of the Fear Factor: A Historical Prospective
   1.1. Ukraine’s View of the Relationship
   1.2. Russia’s View of the Relationship

2. Ukraine-Russian Relations: Contentious issues, Contradictions, Interdependence and Prospects for Cooperation
   2.1. Contentious Issues
   2.2. Existence of Contradictions
   2.3. Interdependence
   2.4. Prospect for cooperation

3. Ukrainian Foreign Policy towards Russia and the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS)
   3.1 Formation of the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS): A New Alliance
   3.2 Ukraine and the Commonwealth of Independent States
   3.3 Ukraine’s Positive Policy and the CIS

CONCLUSION

REFERENCES