Completion of PhD thesis is a long process, in which one gets encouragement and support from so many people and institutions that it is difficult to name them all. I would like to first acknowledge my parents, who throughout the process, kept me encouraging. The thesis is dedicated to them.

I want to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Alka Acharya, who always provided me an insight to go deeper into my academic research. Madam, without you, it would not have possible for me to complete this thesis. I would always be indebted to you. I also want to express my thanks to Prof. Srikanth Kondapalli for his suggestions on my research. My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. Pushpesh Pant, Prof. Anuradha M. Chenoy, Dr. Sanjay Kumar Pandey, Dr. Rajan Kumar, Mr. Manish Dawalde, Dr. Vyjayanti Raghavan, and Mr. Ravikesh for their support.

I am grateful to the Korea Foundation for providing me Field Research Fellowship in 2005 and Korean language Training Fellowship in 2006. Next, I wish to thank the University Grants Commission of India, which provided me Junior and Senior Research Fellowships.

When I started teaching at the Department of East Asian Studies, University of Delhi, I came across other teachers, namely, Ms. V. Ramalakshmi, Prof. Sreemati Chakrabarti and Prof. Madhu Bhalla. They provided me all the academic freedom and nurtured my academic life. I want to express my sincere thanks to all of them. Prof. Kim Do-young and Woo Myung-ju, at the Department, helped me to improve my Korean language and I want to acknowledge their role.

I also acknowledge the library staffs of JNU, IDSA, DU, and Teen Murthi libraries in India. Furthermore, I am also thankful to library staffs, who helped me in collecting research materials in South Korea at Yonsei University, National Assembly, Seoul National University, IFES, and Kim Dae-jung Presidential Library and Museum libraries.

In my various research visits to Korea, I had opportunity to meet many renowned Korean Studies experts and I wish to say Prof. Edward J. Baker, Prof. Kent E. Calder, Prof. Don Oberdörfer, Prof. David C. Kang, Prof. Yoo Dae-kyu, Prof. Hamn Taik-young, Prof. Park Myung-lim, and Prof. Choi Ajin special thanks for their insightful comments and suggestions.

I thank also to Hashmi Sir, Rajeev Sir, Mithilesh Sir, Sachin Sir and Jayant Sir, who have always been there to support me. For their gifts of friendship, encouragement, and irreverence, I thank Rajesh, Indrajot, Narendra, Vibhanshu, Amresh, Chandra Jee, Panditji, Amit Kumar, Rishikesh, Akanksha, Bitto, Neeraj, Nikhil Dubey, Aparva, Manoj, Bhushan, Tushar and Bikas. Dear friends, you all are very precious to me. I also want to thank my friends, Kartika and Harsh for their constant encouragement, even though they have been busy with their own research and teachings.
Prof. Kang Kyung-son, my guardian in Korea, helped in all possible ways during my stays in Korea. I want to express my sincere gratitude to him. Mr. Kim Seung-ho at the South Korean Embassy in India also needs special acknowledgement.

I also want to extend thanks to my family members- Baba, Dadi, Bhaiya, Bhabhi, Piyush and Ayush for their love.

Sandip Kumar Mishra