ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I wish to express wholeheartedly my deep sense of gratitude to my research guide, Dr. Ujjwala Panse Jha, Reader of Centre of Advanced Study in Sanskrit, University of Pune, for her noble guidance and valuable suggestions at various stages for preparation and correction in this thesis. Without her guidance and encouragement, this research work would not have attained the present shape.

I am grateful to Prof. V. N. Jha, Director of the Centre of Advanced Study in Sanskrit, who has given tremendous help and encouragement for my research in the University of Pune.

I am also grateful to the Library of C.A.S.S. the Library of University of Pune and the Library of Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, for allowing me to make use of their valuable collections and books.

I wish to take this opportunity to express the full and sincere acknowledgements to the Malaysian Sangha Fund of Yayasan Belia Buddhist Malaysia and Malaysian Buddhist Meditation Centre, Penang, for granting me scholarship during Ph.D. course. Without these financial supports it would not have been possible for me to complete the research work with comfort.

The writing of the thesis would not have been accomplished had it not been assisted by the contributions of many other individuals and circumstances. Although all of them cannot be acknowledged here, I am extremely grateful to them.

My doctoral research work has been possible due to the encouragement and assistance of my dear parents, brothers and sisters and relatives. I, therefore, wish to pay homage to them with the deepest sense of gratitude.
