

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude towards my guide Dr.Shivkumar, Reader in C.A.S.S., University of Poona, who granted me the privilege of his valuable guidance.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr.V.N.Jha, Director, C.A.S.S., University of Poona. He allowed me to compile a bibliography of yoga which surely gave the broader perspective of the topic concerned. At the same time he allowed me to continue my research further. I am very grateful to Dr.S.D.Joshi, the erstwhile Director of the C.A.S.S. and the Head of the Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit, University of Poona, who gave me an opportunity of pursuing the research in the centre.

I am grateful to Dr.(Mrs.) Bhate, Dr.S.M.Shah and Dr.M.D.Pandit for their help with all personal care and affinity.

I have no words to thank my friends Dr.Nirmala Kamat, Dr.Kanchan Mande, Dr.Anuradha Pujari and Dr.Shubhangi Pradhan. Without their whole-hearted co-operation this dissertation would not have seen the light of the day.

I also thank the librarian and the staff of the C.A.S.S., the librarian Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute and likewise the librarian Jaykar Library and the library of Deccan College along with the members of their staff for providing all library facilities.

My thanks, though of personal nature are due to Mr. Shrinand Thakar who helped me a lot in the correction of this thesis. I must mention here that my parents Mr. Murlidhar Deshpande and Mrs. Mandakini Deshpande, my brother Dr. Madhav Deshpande and Dr. Noel Sheth S.J. proved to be the source of my inspiration. Their valuable suggestions and collection of valuable books were of immense help to me. I should not forget my children Sumedh and Deepti who helped me with their cooperative nature.

I am thankful to Mr. V.V. Sahasrabudhe for typing this thesis within a very short span of time with remarkable accuracy.
