ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to my mentor, Dr. T. Vasantha Kumaran, Professor, Department of Geography, University of Madras, Chennai, for guiding me all the way and providing valuable advice for carrying out and completing my research. I am deeply indebted to him for providing me his precious time and comments, when I rightly needed them. I place on record my sincere gratitude for all that he has done for me.

The help and support extended by Mr. A. Santhosh, Prerak, Kerala State Literacy Mission at Kanjoor is fondly remembered. I am indebted to him for introducing me to the community and for helping me organise the participatory rapid appraisals (PRA) at Kanjoor. I am thankful to each and every person in Kanjoor, for being cordial and showing the heart to share their valuable thoughts with me, without which this research would have been incomplete.

I am also grateful to the people who participated in the PRA at Edapally and Muppathadam. I am also thankful to the medical officers at the Kanjoor, Binanipuram and Kadungalloor Primary Health Centres and the traditional practitioners within and outside Kanjoor, for taking time out of their busy schedule to answer my queries and share their views with me.

I am also thankful to Mr. D. Nanadakumar, Mr. Santhosh K.B, and Mr. Vinod K., of Gaia Information Systems, Thiruvananthapuram, for hiring me the GPS and helping me with geo-coding. I am grateful, to Mr. A. Udayaraj, Assistant System Engineer, WTI Advanced Technologies Private Limited and Mr. S. Sivasankar, Research Scholar, Department of Criminology, University of Madras, for helping me with the maps. I am deeply indebted to Ms. Sumisha Velloth, Project Fellow, at the Centre for Earth Science Studies, Thiruvananthapuram for all her help.

I am thankful to the staffs at the Kerala State Land Use Board, Thrissur for providing me with the base map for the study area. I express my sincere gratitude to the staffs at the Department of Economics and Statistics, the District Panchayat Office, Ernakulam, and the Directorate of Health Services, Thiruvananthapuram for providing me with the secondary data which was of much use during the research.
I am grateful to my parents and my family for all the support extended by them during the period of research. Without their love and support this thesis would not have happened. I take this opportunity also to thank my friends and colleagues who have helped me in many ways.

I would also like to express my thanks to Dr. N. Sivagananam, the Head of the Department, Department of Geography, University of Madras, and all the teaching and non-teaching staff at the Department of Geography, University of Madras, for all their help.

Words are too few to express my gratitude to the Almighty, for being there for me always and helping me through the difficult times.

Rubeena T.A

Chennai
12 June 2006