Acknowledgements

To do Ph. D. from School of Physical Sciences, Jawaharlal Nehru University is like climbing the Himalayas, which may not be possible without good supervision, assistance and cooperation of so many people. I am very much grateful to my supervisor Prof. Prasenjit Sen for introducing me the emerging field of Nanoscience. His sound knowledge of the subject and analytical ability were of great help while carrying out this research work.

It's my privilege to acknowledge all those, who helped/ allowed me to use their facilities for carrying out my research work. Thanks to Dr. S. Ghosh (SPS, JNU) to allow the use of UV-visible Spectrophotometer, Dr. N. C. Mehra (USIC, DU Delhi) for doing some of TEM, Dr. A. K. Awashthi for giving permission and Pawan Kularia (IUAC, Delhi) for doing some of the XRD, Dr. Asitikanta Sarma (IUAC, Delhi) for permitting the use of UV-visible Spectrophotometer, Prof. P. K. Yadava (then in charge of CIF), Prof. R. N. K. Bamezai (then DEAN), and CIF staff, SLS, JNU for giving the permission to use the Fluorescence Spectrophotometer, Prof. R. Bhatt (CBT, JNU) for allowing me to use the Fluorescence Spectrophotometer in his laboratory, Dr. G. B. Reddy, in charge of the TEM facility available at IIT Delhi, for giving permission of its use, Prof. A. Ramanan (IIT Delhi) for doing some of the XRD, Dr. P. V. Satyam (IOP, Bhubaneswar) for doing TEM and HRTEM of Ag nanoparticles, Mr. Baljeet Singh (Glass Blowing Section SLS, JNU) for his constant help with glass related work. I am thankful to Dr. S. K. Sharma (Director USIC) and all other members of USIC, JNU, for their timely help.

It gives me great pleasure to thank the entire SPS family, i.e., faculty members, SPS staff, Canteen staff and students for making SPS a conducive place for research. Thanks to my all friends, who are very close to my heart, whose help, support, encouragement has always given me strength. Friends: Jamil, Gurpreet, Mohanty, Vandana, Amarnath, Pramod, Joyee, Inderajit, Lokender, Shanti, Rashid, Prabhat, Pradeep, Bhasker, Anuja, Sunil, Sandeep, Prem, Ashwani, Devender, Awaneesh, Amitabha Nandi, Pramod, Shiv Kumar, Ajay, Satpal, Kishor, Narayan, Sachin, Pankaj, Salender, Jitender, Rajbeer,
Pawan, Suneet, Santosh, Somdatta, Shekhar, Srikala and many more are worth a mention, all of them are very special to me. Thanks are due to my lovely lab mates Satyendra Prakash, Prabhanshu and Hemant for their all sorts of support and pleasant nature. I also thanks The Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, India, for giving me a research fellowship.

I am thankful to my family members, especially to my parents, for their support, patience and being so nice to me at all times. Once more, thanks to my supervisor for his nice supervision and lot of things I have learnt from him. His analytical ability, way he thinks, and his approach toward a problem, not to mention, all are outstanding. He always motivated me in every situation so nicely and encouraged me for doing this beautiful work. I am also very much thankful to Dr. Nirupa Sen (wife of my supervisor) for going through the thesis with great interest. In the last not the least, I am very much grateful to “Bhagwan”, with whose blessing every work has a successful ending.
