ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Omera is a place far away from the University place lacking in the intellectuals and research facilities, reference books and journals. But with Shear determina{on and my obsession to Sociology gave me an incentive to do research.

Now the completion of this research piece gives me satisfaction and joy and sense of fulfilment. So now with this rare joy I think it is my duty to thank those without whose co-operation, help and guidance this dissertation
would not have completed.

I gratefully acknowledge the guidance and help, I received from various persons during my present research work.

I am deeply grateful to my research guide
Dr. Mrs. Anuradha Bhoite, Reader, Department of Sociology, University of Poona, Pune. The present work is the outcome of her wise counsel and encouragement. I have benefited a lot, academically, from my discussion with her.
I am highly indebted to Prof. Bhoite U. B. for extending all possible academic help, on every occasion, during my stay at Pune for the present research.

I am greatly indebted to Principal, Musande N. S. of Shri Chhatrapati Shivaji College, Omerga, Dist. Osmanabad; for encouragement and ready co-operation which helped me in completing my Thesis.

I wish to express my gratitude to Prof. Dr. Mrs. Sudha Kaldate and Dr. Bilawar and Staff members, Marathwada University, Aurangabad and Prof. D. N. Dhanagare and Staff members; University Of Poona, Pune for their constant encouragement.

I am very grateful to University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for the financial assistance granted to me for my present research work. The research grant eased my financial burden and I was in a position to carry out my field work and the typing.

I must make a special mention of Hon'ble Minister Shri. Sudhakar Rao Naik, Smt. Chandrakala Naik, Managing Editor, 'Roma Banjara', (Monthly), Bombay, and Shri. Koppad K. B., Research Officer, Ministry of Home Affairs, Delhi, Shri. Chauhan Panditrao, Joint Director (Statt), Social Welfare Department, Pune. They readily extended help when I approached them which facilitated my work. I express my sincere gratitude to them.

A number of Professors helped at various stages of my work. The help came in various form. On various occasions I met Dr. Damle Y. B., Pune; Dr. Kulkarni M.G., Aurangabad; Dr. Bhandarkar P. L., Nagpur; Dr. Sangve Vilas, Kolhapur; Dr. Valunja T. N., Pune; Dr. Govind Gare, Director, Tribal Research Institute, Pune; Dr. B. B. Goswami, Director, Anthropological Survey of India, Nagpur; Principal, Rajaram Rathod, Shri Vasantrao Naik Mahavidyalaya, Aurangabad; Prof. Motiraj B. Rathod, Aurangabad, Mr. Bidkar V. G., Advocate to High-Court. They made valuable comments and suggested relevant literature and showed keen interest in my work. I am indebted to them.

Prof. Kulkarni S. A. and Ram Gambhir helped me in editing and correcting the draft of thesis. Their cooperation and ready help and sound suggestions have enabled me to give the thesis its present shape.

My special vote of thanks due to my colleagues in Shri Chhatrapati Shivaji College, Omga and friends for their interest in the completion of this work and concern for me.

My heartiest thanks to my informants and students, the pillars of my present work. They have given constant co-operation for my present research work.

I sincerely thank the Librarian and the Staff of Jaikar Library, University of Poona, Gokhale Institute, Pune; Anthropological Survey Of India, Nagpur - Specially Shri. Bomanwar V. J. -, Marathwada University, Library - Aurangabad and Shri. Chhatrapati Shivaji College, Omerge. They helped and co-operated with me and made it easier for me to locate the library material.

My thanks are also due to Shri. Kulkarni V. R. and Shri. Iyer Mahadevan, Typists, Pune for their neat, efficient and speedy typing.

Lastly, I must mention about my wife and sons. They showed me a deep understanding and showed great patience.