I find myself wordless to express my deep sense of ineptness towards my guide Dr. Subhash H. Behere, Professor, of Physics, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad, for his generous help, perpetual encouragement and abundant interest during the tenure of this work. The patience that he showed on numerous occasions when I was at a learning stage helped me to understand the various facets of Physics. He was tolerant with me trusting me always hoping I would do good job. He has been more than a guide for me. He not only offered benign guidance but also countless personal help for which I would be ever indebted to him. It was his direction, support and motivation without which my success would never have been achieved. I would also like to thank Mrs. Rohini Behere, Prof Shardul Behere and Miss Supriya Behere for their hospitality over the years.

I also take an opportunity to express my deep feelings towards Professor Dr. Prakash Khirade, Head Department of Physics, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad for providing the necessary research facilities in the course of this work.
