Acknowledgements

I acknowledge with gratitude the valuable guidance given by my advisors Dr. Anna George, Dr. Satyajit Rath and Dr. Vineeta Bal. I am grateful to my doctoral committee members, Dr. Rahul Pal and Dr. D.P. Sarkar for their positive inputs during the course of my research work. I would also like to thank Dr. Ayub Quadri for his constructive suggestions during my doctoral committee meets.

I am grateful to the National Institute of Immunology for providing financial and infrastructural support and to the technical staff in the three Immunobiology laboratories for all the help provided. A special thanks to Birenderji who has never refused help. Inderji and the entire unit of SAF have ensured regular supply of mice and I thank them for their cooperation. I am grateful to Mr. Akhilesh Aggarwal and Sanju maam in the Academics for making the official procedures involved in thesis submission run smoothly.

No words are enough to express gratitude and appreciation for my seniors, Neetha, Nagesh, Ashutosh, Shuchi, Anu and Vineeth for teaching me the minutest details of laboratory work and my juniors TK and Gautam for assisting me in animal work with their untiring patience.

A special thanks to Ashutosh for his kind co-operation and valuable counsel throughout the duration of my work. Shuchi, Anu, TK and Bharathi have been more of friends than labmates and I cherish the good times spend with them. My friends Shadma, Radha, Gunjan and my batchmates, Anasua, Uttara, Jyoti, Hridesh, Divya, Anubha, Mani, Vineet have made my stay at NII an enjoyable and memorable experience. My juniors in the lab Rituparna, Abhishek, Sheetal, Suparna, Ritesh, Rupali and Vidya are a constant source of joy. Other than my lab members, I am grateful to all seniors and juniors in different laboratories who have helped me and I thank them for their goodwill and cheer.
I am indebted to my friend Meghna for her unwavering friendship and support throughout these years. I consider myself fortunate to have found a friend in Gautam who has stood by me at all times. I am thankful to them for giving me my best days at NII.

My friends back home, Taraswi, Dipanjana, Bhatta and my sisters Rupsha and Koel keep me going in the worst of times with their love, care and support and they have shown me that human bonds can grow stronger inspite of distances.

I am indebted to my family, damma, ma, baba and arka, for keeping faith in me and encouraging me in all my endeavors. Their love has helped me fight all obstacles and makes me feel that life always has a lot of goodness to offer.

Above all, I am grateful to my god without whose blessings nothing would have been possible.

Priyadarshini Chatterjee.
