ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To Susie, for putting up patiently with my (drawn-out) work; for pinching, prodding and pushing—not always a pleasurable exercise for either of us—and drawing this dissertation out of me (all drawbacks are mine), while, at the same time, providing a special point of reference at a very personal level;

Partha Chatterjee, Vivek Dhareshwar, Aamir Mufti, Gyanendra Pandey, and Ravi Vasudevan, among others, for engaging with and encouraging my work;

Charmian, for sending copies of (her father) Donald Sinderby’s out-of-print novels;

All staff/student/campus friends, especially the mess-staff, at CIEFL;

All staff at Anveshi Library, Hyderabad,
Hansa Mehta Library, MS University, Vadodara,
IACIS (formerly ASRC), Hyderabad,
Indira Gandhi Memorial Library, University of Hyderabad,
Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Library, New Delhi,
National Library, Kolkata,
Osmania University Library, Hyderabad,
Ramesh Mohan Library, CIEFL,
Salar Jung Museum Library, Hyderabad,
Sundaryya Vignana Kendram, Hyderabad, and University Library, SS University of Sanskrit, Kalady;

All friends at Hyderabad: especially Ajay, Anand, Anitha, Anuradhas (two of them), Chandrika, Chittra, Jayasree, Jini, Jomo, Kavitha, Komali, Madhuban, Madhumita, Manohar, Murali, Mustafa, Namrata, Nigel, Pavan, Prasad, Raghu, Rekha, Salahuddin, Satish, Sharif, Srikanth, Srividya and Sukanya;

KN Panikkar (Vice-Chancellor) and staff at SSUS, as well as all my friends at Kerala, especially, Deepa, Gopan, Harris, Jayanthi, Madhu, Manoj, Pavithran, Reji, Reshmi, Sane, Sanjeev (we are still to meet!), Sreekumar (the one!), Sunil(s), Varghese and Vinod;

Faculty and friends at MSU, particularly, Pravin J Patel (Dean, Faculty of Arts), PC Kar, Parul Dave and Jaya Menon;

Atheeth, Ammu(s). Appu(s). Kathya, Makku (aka Al-Hind), Manu, Sindu, Vava and, breaking the series, Nashita, for nothing in particular;

Deeptha, particularly, and Santosh for “very many material and spiritual” considerations;

Uma, Chengu and CB for most things and Subash for many other things;

My father (late), mother and my brothers and their families for almost everything;

Asma, and, of course, her family, for more than everything.
