ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

During the past four years as a doctoral student, I had the opportunity to tap into the knowledge and experience of a great number of individuals who all contributed to this dissertation and my professional development as a Research scholar in one way or another. Now it’s time to thank each of them.

First and most important, I would like to express my deep gratitude to my Guide Dr S.D. Mishra: I thank her for the continuous strong support and guidance. She has always been available when I needed help, providing very useful feedbacks and valuable suggestions, constantly challenging my ideas. I really thank her for transferring me her energy and wholehearted passion for research. Her support, suggestions, experience, encouragement, and understanding made writing the Thesis an incredibly enriching learning experience.

I place on record, my sincere thanks you to Principal Dr Sunny Thomas Institute of Language Studies and Applied Social Sciences, for the consistent encouragement and cooperation, I feel! Myself fortunate to have such kind of unending support which kept me all the way on the track.

I would ever remember sincere, cooperation of Dr Rashmin Sompura, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, Maharaja Sayajirao University for his expert assistance, professional opinion and encouragement extended to me during research work.

My utmost humble appreciation to Chief librarian of Bhaikaka library, Vaiabh Vidyanagar, Hansa Mehta Library, Vadodara, Department of Business Administration Library Baroda.

My gratitude goes to all my colleagues, academic and non-academic staff of Sardar Patel University, Department of Social Work for giving me the opportunity to discover the “academic world” and to develop my teaching and research skills, and for being always available to listen to my ideas, providing valuable comments: in particular Dr. S.D. Mishra.
Finally, I am also indebted to all those scholars who provided advice, observations, and critical comments during various doctoral consortia, conferences, and other formal or informal encounters: in particular people involved in the Industries.

Last but not least, my thanks go to the companies that granted me the data for realizing this Thesis.
