CONTENTS

Acknowledgments
Preface
Introduction

CHAPTER I : THE FEMINIST PERSPECTIVE

The Beginnings : Wollstonecraft - Rousseau Debate
Reassertion of Feminism : Harriet Martineau
The Concept of the 'Other' : Simone de Beauvoir
Socio-Economic factors and the Status of Women : European Feminism
Materialist Concept and Feminism : Fredrick Engels
Feminism and the Concept of Immanence : Virginia Woolf
From Immanence to Transcendence : Elaine Showalter
Feminist Critique of Socio-Political Theory
Structured Schisms
From Feminist Consciousness to Female Identity
Radical Feminism and Patriarchy
The Indian Context
Gandhian Feminism

CHAPTER II : THE IMPORTANCE OF CULTURAL-LITERARY STUDIES

Women and Cultural Processes
Feminism and the Writings of Women
Women and Language
Sociology and Literature

CHAPTER III : SURVEY AND ANALYSIS OF SOCIOLOGICAL STUDIES ON WOMEN AND SOCIETY

Women and Society in the 1940's
Marriage - Institution and Norm
Girl Child - Family and the Household
The Women in an Indian Household
Women - Education and Employment
Women and the Indian Constitution
The Objectification of women
The Status of Women in India
CHAPTER IV : DEVELOPMENT OF THE INDIAN ENGLISH NOVEL AND THE POSITION OF WOMEN NOVELISTS

Social Cultural Determinants
Indian English Novel and Male/Female Dichotomy
Women and the Novel

CHAPTER V : WOMEN LITERATURE AND SOCIETY

Attia Hosain, 1913
Santha Rama Rau, 1923
Kamala Markandaya, 1924
Nayantara Sahgal, 1927
Anita Desai, 1937
Shashi Deshpande, 1938

An Overview of the Literary Representation of Indian Womanhood
The Task of Representing: Responses of Some Novelists.

CHAPTER VI : SOCIAL AND SELF PERCEPTIONS OF WOMEN RESPONDENTS: AN EMPIRICAL STUDY

CONCLUSION
QUESTIONNAIRE/INTERVIEW GUIDE
BIBLIOGRAPHY