Acknowledgements

This research project was spread over a period of about three and a half years from February 1997 to July 2000. During this period necessary help was rendered to me by several persons in different ways. It is my solemn duty to express my sincere thanks to all of them.

First of all, I would like to thank the Ministry of Culture and High Education of I.R. of Iran and Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) who awarded me a scholarship. I thank these institutions for the opportunity they provided me to study in India.

During the study, about one hundred companies' annual reports provided me the data. In that connection the Research, Statistics, and Publication Department of Mumbai Stock Exchange and Center for Monitoring Indian Economy (CMIE), made efforts for making the data available to me. It was possible to complete this study only due to their co-operation and assistance. I owe my sincere thanks to both these institutions.

I am also extremely thankful to the librarian and staff of the National Institute of Bank Management (NIBM), Pune for their excellent co-operation and the library service they have rendered to me.

I am extremely obliged to my husband Mr. Fazlali for his sacrifice and encouragement. His companionship during the hardship time of the study made it possible to complete my task. He rendered whatever help was sought from him.
I need to specially thank my little daughter, Miss Kimiya, for her patience. She would forgive me because I have paid less attention to her and used the time for concentration on my studies.

I cannot forget the kindness and encouragement of my parents, who have always encouraged every successful step in my life.

I am particularly grateful to Dr. Maghsoodi and Dr. Hajizadeh, First Secretary and Director of Science & Education of Embassy of the Islamic Republic of Iran in New Delhi, for their invaluable assistance during the project study.

I was very lucky to be associated with the Department of Commerce and Management of the University of Pune. From time to time, during my study here, Dr. S. L. Joshi, Head of the Department, encouraged me and assisted me in my endeavor. The librarian and the entire staff were helpful and co-operative. I thank Dr. S. L. Joshi and the office staff.

Last but not the least; I would like to extend some heartfelt gratitude to my guide, Dr. Vidyadhar Bhate. It was he who first inculcated that spark in me, which was imperative for me to continue this project with full vigour and also the ceaseless guidance and support from the start to end. He has spent his valuable time in making it possible for me to complete this work. I am extremely obliged to him.
