At the outset, I owe a sense of deep gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Prof. R.P. Singh for his sincere and constant guidance from the beginning till the end of my work. He has always encouraged me to work hard and without his scholastic cooperation, generous advice and valuable suggestions, it would not have been possible to become concrete reality of this academic endeavour. I will never forget how he read my raw drafts again and again and patiently suggested changes. It is his intimacy and great expectations that inspired me to perform well. I could not perform as much as he wanted me to, but it seems that whatever I could do was my most possible limit.

I am grateful to Prof. Satyapal Gautam, Dr. Bhagat Oinam and Dr. Manidipa Sen for discussion, comments and valuable advices.

I would like to mention my gratitude to all authors and websites, which have helped me, directly or indirectly, in writing the present work and I have mentioned them at relevant places and also in the general bibliography.

During the preparation of this thesis, my family members also provide me tremendous support and encouragement. It was their belief that I could accomplish this task which provided me the much-needed moral support. I am indebted to my Mama late Sri Uma Shankar Prasad who always showed me the moral way and inspired me. I feel fortunate to be blessed with my parents- Smt. Maya Devi and Sri Ram Briksh Ram- who always constantly motivate and support me to realize my goals in life. I also wish to express my sincere thanks to my elder brother Deependra Kumar for his unflinching support and being pillar of my strength. They all always showed keen interest in my research work and provided me with valuable and useful feedback. I am also thankful to my younger Mama Sri Ram Gopal Prasad, elder sisters- Kiran and Anjali- younger brothers- Atul Kumar and Mayank Kumar- my bhabhi Dr. Shashibala Chakraborty and my wife Neelam for their love and affectionate care that has been of immense help to me in the completion of this work.

I take this opportunity to give my thanks to all my friends and well-wishers- Dr. Vijay Kumar, Dr. Prashant Tripathi, Dr. Anjani Pathak Uday Chauhan, Shambho, Prem Kumar, Kamal, Atukant and Shiv- whose consciously or unconsciously spoken words and gestures encouraged me during difficult phases of preparing this thesis.

I would like to thank the staff of different libraries such as- Indian Council of Philosophical Research, Lucknow and Jawaharlal Nehru University, N.Delhi.

Last but not least, I acknowledge with gratitude the valuable assistance provided to me by the members of my work place specially Mr. Pratap Singh Baghel (Principal, District Institute of Education and Training, Sant Kabeer Nagar, U.P.) and Lecturers Mr. D.K.Singh, Dr.R.C.Patel, Dr.Subhash Vishwakarma and Ramsharan Yadav.
