A journey is effortless when we travel together. Interdependence is definitely more valuable than independence. This thesis is the result of the journey whereby I have been accompanied, supported and guided by many people. I would thus like to thank everyone who, knowingly or otherwise, has provided support, encouragement and assistance along the way.

A First and foremost, I would like to extend my profound sense of gratitude to my guide Prof.Dr.T.R.SUBRAMANYA, for his continuous support, encouragement and patient instructions which have always boosted my confidence. I humbly thank for his illuminating guidance, perceptual interest, precious suggestions and ever helping mind at every step throughout the period of study.

I express sincere thanks to Prof.Dr.K.M.Hanumantharayappa, Principal, Dean Faculty of Law, University Law College, Bangalore University, Bangalore, Dr.V.Sudesh, Reader, Dr.Suresh.V.Nadagoudar, Reader, Chairperson P.G.Department Bangalore University, for their guidance and suggestions.

I express sincere thanks to the support to Roshini, Confederation of Indian Industry Legal Advisor, Mysore; Prabhavathi Project Coordinator, World Trade Intellectual Property Right Centre, Bangalore and I am profoundly indebted to Krishnamurthy, Deputy Director, Bio Technology Centre, Bangalore, and Prashanth Kumar.S.Bhairappanavas, Examiner of Trademarks and Geographical Indication, for supporting my studies.
Most of all, I have no words to express my boundless gratitude to my beloved parents Smt. Geethanjali and Late. Sri. S. Govind Naik, especially my husband Venkatesh R, and my brother Anil for their never ending support, affection, love and sacrifice that forms the soul for this body and is responsible for what I am today. I am eternally grateful to them for all that they have done for me.

I give all glory to the Almighty for giving me the strength and blessings to complete this research work successfully. I hearted remain liable for any error or whatsoever mistake in this work.
