ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I thank Almighty for giving me possibility to complete this work.

My deepest gratitude goes to my research guide Dr. Yogesh C. Joshi, who shared his knowledge, expertise and wisdom throughout the five years of research journey. His unwavering encouragement and guidance gave me the opportunity to keep performing better and provided fresh perspectives to the study. Being tough for deriving best work output but patient and understanding during sensitive times is the unique combination he carries. No doubt, he has been the strongest pillar of my research journey.

My sincere thanks other faculty members of G. H. Patel Post Graduate Institute of Business Management: Prof (Dr.) R. P. Patel, Prof (Dr.) Darshna Dave, Prof (Dr.) P. K. Priyan, Dr. R. M. Rathod, Dr. K. S. Prasad and Dr. Ashish Mehta for their academic insights and suggestions that made the thesis more valuable. My heartfelt thanks to all the faculty members of IIM, Ahmedabad with special reference to Prof. Anil Gupta. His tremendous work experience at grassroots level and mentorship at NIF, GIAN, SRISTI, HBN raised the level of curiosity to perform and make little contribution to his great work. I am thankful for the library resources of IIM, Ahmedabad that provided extensive review of journals, books, database and research studies of faculty members. I acknowledge all the grassroots innovators of Gujarat whose stories and innovations have influenced this research indirectly.

I would like to thank my parents Mr Mayank Shah and Mrs Hansa Shah, who implanted the seeds of exploring the world of knowledge. I would have not achieved this highest level of academic qualification without their support and encouragement. I cannot thank enough for the love and best wishes of my grandparents and parents in law Mr. Ramjibhai Parmar and Mrs. Madhuben Parmar. A very special thanks to my husband Mr Gaurav Parmar for standing as a rock behind me and provided me everything so that I can pursue my dreams. His intellectual and emotional support always balanced me in difficult time. The research journey became more joyful because of my little daughter Ruhani Parmar.
