Any significant activity to be completed requires help, guidance, suggestions and support from the various people around. Completing the research work for Ph.D. is also not an exception to this universal rule.

While preparing this dissertation, I have received a valuable guidance and wide information from distinguished personalities and institutions. It would be difficult to list all of them, but it would be discourteous if I do not mention the assistance and co-operation received from eminent personalities and institutions.

First of all, let me express, at the outset my profound gratitude to Principal, Dr. Shaikh Aftab Anwar, who is my Research Guide, Friend, Philosopher and Guru combined in one. Who encouraged me consistently, by giving invaluable guidance with much needed motivation during the prolonged process of study.

I take this opportunity to thank various authorities of MCCIA, DIC, WMDC, MITCON, Food Craft Institute, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed University, Indian Food Processing Industry Association, Mumbai, All India Bread Manufacturers Association, New Delhi, All India Food Processors Association (AIFPA), New Delhi, Society of Indian Bakers (SIB), New Delhi. I am highly obliged to the librarian of Jaykar Library, Pune University, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed University, Pune, Mumbai University, Mumbai, Madras University, Chennai, Pune District Bakery Foods Producers Consumer Organization Ltd. Pune (Maida Society).

I am always indebted to the encouragement by Hon’ble, Narendraji Sengar, a renowned Industrialist, who constantly inspired me for this research work and I sincerely thank him for the same.
I also hereby acknowledge the guidance and co-operation extended by the Authorities of Maharashtra Education Society, late officiating Principal P. G. Kulkarni, Principal Dr. N. S. Umarani, S. B. Bhosale Registrar, Abasaheb Garware College of Arts and Science, Pune as well as staff members of MES Garware College of Commerce.

I would also like to thank Mrs. Priyanka Wadekar, Assistant Librarian Jaykar Library, Pune University, Mrs. Ghatge Assistant Librarian BMCC, Dr. D. V. Joshi former Registrar of Ness Wadia College, Pune, Mr. Sunil Mukhekar, Prof. Avind Jahagirdar, Dr. Nasir Shaikh, Prof. S. D. Pawar of MMCC, Prof. Ananda Jadhav, M.D. Shah College, Malad, Mumbai, Mr. Ashok Jadhav, Mumbai and all staff members of Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce and Post Graduate Research Centre, Camp, Pune.

I must mention, with greatest respect, the blessings of my Guru “Maharaj Shree Swami Samartha”, Akkalkot, realized through emotional and spiritual elevations and inspirations, which, I suppose, has helped me to reach up to this stage and will continue to do so in future also.

I thank Mr. Vijay Metkar who really took lot of efforts of DTP and formatting of the thesis contents.

I am always indebted to numerous respondents in Bakery Industry from whom I gathered primary data. I would therefore, like to put on record my sincere thanks for the immense help, up to date information and knowledge that I could obtain through number of visits, discussions with the owners of bakery products manufacturing units. It would have been impossible for me to complete this thesis without heartiest co-operation from all the respondents. I am very much thankful to them.
I am also indebted to my wife Aparna, Son Anish and Daughter Richika and all other family members and relatives for constantly encouraging and creating supportive environment at home.

Last but not least I am very much thankful to all my friends and all those persons and associations who helped me a lot directly and indirectly in my research work.
