

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It has been observed that decision making is not the product of a single individual at a given point in time and circumstances. The same can be said for a research inquiry. This study hardly represents the endeavours of one individual. So many have made a contribution either directly or indirectly that it is not possible to acknowledge everyone.

Special recognition is due to Prof. P.C. Shejwalkar. He was instrumental in influencing my decision to study the area of social responsibility. Prof. Shejwalkar provided both valued technical assistance and constructive insight into corporate social responsibilities. His conceptualizations have played a very prominent role in this study.

A special thanks also goes to my family. My children Shikha and Suhail displayed tolerance and understanding for the research which frequently kept us apart. My wife Sonia was remarkably patient. She willingly sacrificed her gourmet cooking and bestselling novels to become a major partner in this research effort. A special mention of my friend Prof. Vivek Sane who helped in all possible ways he could.
