

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present work is completed under the guidance of Dr. Girijesh Pant, Professor, Centre for West Asian Studies, SIS, JNU, New Delhi. I express my deep sense of gratitude towards my supervisor, Prof. Girijesh Pant. He has been the mentor and guide throughout the planning and execution of this research. The insight he has given into the subject and the adapted methodology is immensely valuable. I am very thankful to him for the support he extended in spite of his busy academic schedule. I am also thankful to my co – supervisor, Prof. A. K. Ramakrishnan for his kind cooperation and support.

My first thanks go to people with whom I enjoyed fascinating discussions. I would like to give special thanks to Mr. Rabindranath Bhattacharya sir (General Manager - ONGC) for interesting detailed conversations regarding OVL's projects, bidding process and other technicalities. I am thankful to Mr. Sanjay Lale sir (ONGC) for sharing his ideas on energy security and overseas acquisition policies. I am also thankful to Dr. Bhupendra Singh (MEA) for his thoughts on India's energy security. I would also like to thank Dr. Ranvir Singh for his cooperation at the Parliament library to use Oil and Natural Gas Commission Reports, which has been used as a primary source for this research.

I would also like to express my grateful thanks towards Prof. Gulshan Dietl, Prof. A. K. Pasha, Prof. P. C. Jain, Prof. P. R. Kumaraswamy, Dr. A. K. Mohapatra, Prof. A. K. Dubey, Prof. S. N. Malakar and Sima Baidya madam. I will also always fondly remember Soniya madam and Dhyani bhaiya - the staff of Centre for West Asian Studies. I would also like to thank the staff of JNU, IDSA and TERI library for their cooperation.

I would like to grant an honorable mention to my parents, without whom this work would not have been possible. My thanks to Shrimati Malati Shingade (aunt) and Gargi are due, for their constant enquiry about the progress of my work. Over the years, a number of friends have invested their time in generating ideas within me. I would like to extend particular thanks to my friends, who had diverse interests ranging from IR to Languages to Philosophy & Social Medicine.

Finally, I owe all the responsibility for any errors found in this work, none other than me should be held accountable for that.
