ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

For any Army Officer, posted as an instructor at the National Defence Academy, Khadakwasla, Pune to embark upon the tedious and hazardous path of research was an enormous task. The benign presence of a 'friend philosopher and guide' becomes a paramount necessity for the safe delivery of the traveller at his destination. Dr. Arvind Deshpande, my research guide, was kind enough to spare his valuable time, whenever needed, inspite of his diverse and innumerable academic involvements. Without his constant encouragement, advice, and able guidance this work would not have been accomplished. It is almost impossible for me to put my deep sense of gratitude for him, in words. Also my sincere thanks are due to my classmate and dear friend Dr. P.K. Sinha of Pune University, who inspired me to take up this research in the first place. I sincerely thank Major AS Sudesh and Captain H.S. Oberoi, my colleagues at the National Defence Academy who rendered valuable assistance by taking care of the heuristics of this work. I am very grateful to the staff at the Pune Archives for making readily available to me the original records in manuscript and other rare documents pertaining to the Bhils of Khandesh relevant to the period of this research. I am thankful to the staff of the Servants of India Society's Library and the Jayakar Library, Pune. I must also thank Mr. A. Varghese for his speedy and neat typing.

Pune,
27th May 86.
