

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am thankful to all those who assisted me in completing this thesis, though it is not possible here to mention all to them. The first and foremost debt of gratitude I owe is to my Guide Dr. V.K. Kshire, former Lokmanya Tilak Professor and Head, Department of Politics and Public Administration, University of Pune, Pune-7 for his valuable guidance and encouragement throughout the period of the study. His keen and constant interest and innumerable suggestions enabled me to complete my research.

I also owe much to Dr. Gopal Guru, Mahatma Gandhi Professor and Head, Department of Politics and Public Administration, University of Pune and other departmental staff members for their valuable suggestions and keen interest shown by them in my work. I would be failing in my duty, if I do not thank Dr. V.N. Pawar, Advocate V.G. Hande and Advocate B.G. Thakre the authorities of Nashik District Maratha Vidya Prasarak Samaj, Nashik whose continuous insistence on improving qualification by teachers inspired me to register my name for this research.

I am also thankful to Principal L.B. Pawar and Principal V.B. Gaikwad whose co-operation throughout the period of research helped me a lot. I wish to thank several revenue officers, who extended their co-operation and spared time whenever I approached them in the context of my research work at the same time requesting me not to make reference to their names.

I express my sincere thanks to the librarian and staff of Jayakar Library, The Servants of India Society Library, Library of Yeshwantrao Chavan Academy of Development Administration (YASHDA) and Library of the University Department of Politics and Public Administration, Pune-7.

Lastly I am thankful to Shri. Pandit G.P. for this meticulous computerised typing, despite the short time available to him.
