

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My debts, for this thesis, are large. Above all, I am extremely grateful to my teacher and mentor Prof. Rahmatullah Khan without whose parental and scholarly guidance this thesis would have been inconceivable. What I owe to him no words can express. I am deeply obliged to Dr. Yogesh Kumar Tyagi who always encouraged me. Prof. R.P. Anand, Prof. V.S. Mani and Dr. B.S. Chimni also encouraged me. I am highly obliged to Mr. Yogeshwar Prasad, Senior Advocate, Supreme Court and present Advocate-General of Uttar Pradesh for moral support.

My debt to the Jawaharlal Nehru University is immense which gave me grant to visit the Hague, (The Netherlands). I am thankful to the libraries of Indian Law Institute and the Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi for using their facilities.

I am deeply obliged to Prof. Ko Swan Sik of Erasmus University Rotterdam and His Excellency Mr. M.C.W. Pinto, Secretary-General of the Iran.- United States Claims Tribunal, the Hague for their kindness which made my stay there so comfortable. My thanks also go to the Peace Palace library and the T.M.C. Asser Institute, The Hague. Mrs. Judy Freedburg of the Asser Institute was particularly generous.

My discussions with legal assistants Mr. Brunetti, Mr. Heiskanen, Mr. Marteau, Mr. Alizadeh, Mr. Piran, Mr. Brueschke and Judge Ameli at the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal helped to clarify my thought. I have tried to benefit from these discussions. But if I am unable to incorporate all the learning the fault is entirely mine.

I have enjoyed so much help and stimulation from the discussions with friends throughout the years during which this thesis was conceived and reached its present form that I am utterly incapable of setting a suitable memorial for each of them individually. However some names deserve special mention - Abhaya, Azhar, Aziz Tajju, Manohar, Suresh, Surendra (friends at Kaveri, Sabarmati, and Jhelum Hostels) and Rachna Gutpa, Advocate-on-Record, the Supreme Court.

Finally, I thank Mrs. Vijayalakshmi Arunachalam for patient typing.
