LIST OF FIGURES

1. First Order Mediation and the First Historical Act 14
2. Desocialization and the Conception of Illusory Communities 35
3. Marginalizing the 'Nation' 141
4. Class and Non-Class Agents and Resources 142
5. Gene-Culture Co-evolution 152
6. Individual-in-Relations 159
7. Four Fundamental Self-Other Relationships 173
8. The Internal Components of Individual-in-Relations 185
9. The Multi-Self, Multi-Identity Emancipatory Subject 203
10. The Ontological Hiatus Between Structure and Agency and the Mode of Connection Between Them 238
11. Action Logics 299
12. The Institutions of the Body 305
13. Generic, Cultural and the Sexual Divisions of Labour 322
14. Ideal Dialogical Act 336
15. Saussurean Langue and Parole 338
16. Three Structural Relationships/Movements' that Shape Everyday Life 347
17. The Creation of a Generic Position-Practice 377a
18. The Culture Component of Class Struggle 383
19. The Place of Politics and Culture in Self-Other Relationship 386
20. Components of the Forms of Self-Other Interaction 387
21. Power, Social Structure of Universality and Non-Class Agents (or Subjects) 392
22. Power and the Social Structure of Dialogical Pluralism 397
23. Three 'Traditions' of Conceptualizing Power 437
24. The Range of Power 441