Acknowledgement

In the name of God, most Gracious, most Merciful. I express gratefulness to Lord Shri. Dattatreya for the strength and confidence I have gained from him.

Pursuing a Doctor of philosophy is a both painful and enjoyable experience. It’s just like climbing a high peak, step by step, accompanied with bitterness, hardships, frustration, encouragement and trust and with the kind help of so many people. When I found myself at the top enjoying the beautiful scenery, I realized that it was, in fact, the teamwork that got me there. Though it will not be enough to express my gratitude in words to all those people who helped me, I would still like to register my thankfulness to all these personalities.

I feel proud to convey my sincere thanks to Shivaji University, Kolhapur for providing me an opportunity to study such kind of research work. At the outset I am extremely grateful to my guide, Dr. N.Y. Rajeshirke, for his timely guidance and all the useful discussions and brainstorming sessions, especially during the difficult conceptual development stage. His deep insights helped me at various stages of my research. I also remain indebted for his understanding and support during the times when I was really depressed due to my professional problems.

My sincere gratitude is reserved for Dr. G.J. Naik, for his invaluable insights and suggestions. I really appreciate his willingness to meet me at short notice every time and going through several drafts of my thesis. I remain amazed that despite his busy schedule, he was able to go through the final draft of my thesis and meet me in less than a week with comments and suggestions on almost every page. I will never forget his support in providing me numerous opportunities to learn and develop as a teacher. I am also indebted to my friends Dr. S.C. Patil, Dr. Shivanskar K, Dr. Bhargva R and Shri. G. D. Joshi, Retired SBI manager for his useful suggestions in this study including all my blogger friends who helped in promoting my questionnaire in their esteemed organizations.
I would appreciate and sincerely acknowledge officials of HDFC Bank Ltd, Punjab National Bank, Oriental Bank of Commerce, The Federal Bank Ltd, IDBI Bank Ltd, Indian Overseas Bank Ltd, State Bank of India and ICICI Bank Ltd and particularly National Institute for Bank Management, Pune (NIBM) library for rich stock of journals magazines which provided directly and indirectly valuable help in completion of the work. I must also thank to the citizen and the Corporates of Kolhapur, Belgaum, Dharwad & Hubli city. As I have been benefited much from these visits during the period of my research.

Words cannot express the feelings I have for my parents, I place on record my gratitude to the members of my family members specially my beloved father Shri. Krishnaji C Kavishwar, my mother Radha Krishnaji Kavishwar, my brother Rakesh and my bhabhi Pratibha and my nephew Anirudha and Shirsha and my son Sudhanv and Sumedh who encouraged and supported throughout the project period.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the most important person in my life better half Lata R Kavishwar. She has been a constant source of strength and inspiration. There were times during the past four years when everything seemed hopeless and I didn’t have any hope. I can honestly say that it was only her determination and constant encouragement that ultimately made it possible for me to see this research work through till the end.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to those who have contributed to this thesis and supported me in one way or the other during this amazing journey in my research work.
