CONTENTS

PREFACE

LIST OF TABLES

ABBREVIATIONS

CHAPTER

I HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE OF SOCIAL SECURITY 1-69

Emergence of Industrial Proleteriat in India. (1-6)

Need for economic security for Industrial working class. (6-12)

Economic Security in ancient India.(12-14)

Economic Security in modern India.(14)

Concept of a Welfare State.(14-15)

Social Security before 1948.(16)

Early Struggle (16-17)

Workmen’s Compensation Act, 1923.(17-21)

Maternity Benefit Legislation.(21-24)

The Royal Commission Scheme, 1931.(24-26)

The Bombay Textile Labour Committee Scheme, 1940.(26-31)

The Labour Department Scheme, 1942(31-33)

Adarkar’s Scheme, 1944.(33-40)

Stack and Rao Scheme, 1945.(40-45)

March towards Social Security since 1948. (46-47)
Formation of the E.S.I. Corporation (47-49)

Salient features of the E.S.I. Scheme (49-69)

II THE ADMINISTRATIVE FRAMEWORK OF THE E.S.I. SCHEME

The Employers State Insurance Corporation (70-78)

Important decisions taken by the Corporation during the year 1975-76 (79-81)

The standing committee (82-84)

Important decisions taken by the committee during the year 1975-76 (84-87)

Medical Benefit council (87-89)

Amalgam of interests (89-91)

E.S.I. Judiciary

Constitution of the E.S.I. Court (91-97)

Principal officers (97-114)

Decentralisation of administration (114-122)

Regional Boards and local committees (122)

Delegation of powers (122-125)

Administrative and financial autonomy (125-128)

Administration of medical care (128-130)

III REGISTRATION PROCEDURE AND PROCESSING OF CLAIMS

Modus operandi (131-132)
Allotment of sets (132-133)

Completion of declaration forms (133-139)

Registration of employees employed after the appointed day (139-141)

Completion of temporary identification certificate (141-143)

Notice of accident by the employee (144-145)

Accident report by employer (146-148)

Investigation of the accident by the local office (148-150)

Processing and payment of the claims (150-152)

IV ADMINISTRATION OF BENEFITS 153-215

Types of benefits (153-157)

Cash benefits (157)

Sickness benefit (157-163)

Extended sickness benefit (163-167)

Maternity benefit (167-178)

Disablement benefit (173-185)

Dependents benefit (185-191)

Funeral benefit (193-195)

Benefit in kind—medical benefit (195-203)

Panel and Service Systems (203-209)

Extension of medical care to the families of insured persons (209-214)

Evaluation (214-215)
FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS 216-240

Finance as a sine-qua-non for the scheme (216)

Contribution structure (216-224)

Mechanism for collection (224-228)

Employees' State Insurance Fund (228-234)

Investment pattern (234-235)

Accounting arrangements (235-238)

OBSERVATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS 241-284

Coverage (247-251)

Administrative machinery (251-254)

Working methods and procedures (254-257)

Claims payment operations (257-259)

Medical care (259-261)

Beneficiaries complaints (261-262)

Constant vigil (263-264)

Medico social workers (264-265)

Alternative systems of medicines (265-268)

Domiciliary visits (268-270)

Lax certification (270-273)

Adequate office space (273-274)

Narrow interpretation of its own powers (274-275)

Organisational aspects (275-277)

Personnel aspects (277-279)
Allied aspects (279-281)

Conclusion (281-284)

APPENDICES 285-287

BIBLIOGRAPHY 288-293