This is to acknowledge the assistance, help, co-operation, encouragement and guidance received by me from various persons and organizations while completing my Ph.D. dissertation.

My first word of gratitude is towards my guide and supervisor, Dr. Sunalini Sattoor, Ex-Reader, Department of Sociology, University of Pune, who spared her valuable time for giving me inspiring guidance, vitalized with unselfish motives and also for paying attention to my well-being, while I was in India. This contributed to my academic achievement.

Dr. A. Ramanamma, the most Experienced Professor and former Head of the Department of Sociology, University of Pune, to whom I found endowed with a golden heart and motherly attitude. I am equally grateful to her for her whole-hearted and ever-ready support and advice.

My heart felt thanks are due to Dr. Sharmila Rege, Professor and the Head of the Department of Sociology, University of Pune, and also to the other members of the Departmental Staff for their co-operation in times of need.

I am deeply obliged to Indian Council For Cultural Relations (ICCR) for supporting me by awarding a fellowship for completing my Ph.D. work smoothly.

Grateful thanks are extended to the Hindu Samaj of Thailand and its key member, Mr. Krish Mettaguna for his timely help and assistance. The Shri Guru Sing Sabha, Bangkok, The Indian Study Centre of the Thammasat University, The Indain Embassy in Thailand, all these organizations provided me with valuable information.

My sincere thanks to The Sikh Vidyalaya International School and The Modern International School for their co-operation and assistance in collecting the data.

I would like to record my sense of gratitude towards Mr. Somsakdi Tantiwathin (Hassa X. Tanwani), Mr. Soonthorn Khanijohn, Mr. Navnidhi Narula, Mr. Chuan Thaukur and Mrs. Daljeet Saluja and Mr. Suthee Setthee who gave immense corporation and provided me with valuable information and necessary assistance.
I sincerely thank all the respondents who co-operated with me in making this research a possible reality, by sparing their valuable time for filling the Questionnaires and also for giving me information, suggestions, books, photographs and also by encouraging their friends to give interviews.

My profound gratitude to my dear eldest brother, Mr.Palakrisna Wudthiwongse who helped me in correcting and improving the manuscript of my dissertation. My dear elder brother Mr.Chonasut Wudthiwongse who financially supported me during the last four years period of my Ph.D. research. I am also thankful to my dear younger sister, Ms.Wunnajun Wudthiwongse who helped me to co-ordinate all those involved in my research in Thailand.

Last but not the least, I take this opportunity to express my love and gratitude to my beloved parents who provided me with moral support in all my educational and professional endeavours, without their encouragement, persistent interest, blessings as well as good wishes this endeavour would not have been possible.

I once again sincerely thank to all the organizations and persons mentioned above.

Proud of being ICCR scholar, I feel obliged to contribute to peace and prosperity of Thailand, India and The World.

Pakpong Wudthiwongse