ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present work is an outcome of my ceaseless efforts during the last five years or so. I had to encounter a great number of difficulties and odds during the course of my research work. The difficulties were not merely of financial nature (as I have not received any financial assistance of any kind), but of various other types. At times I found it extremely difficult to sustain my interest in work. It is because of strong commitment and the deep sense of duty towards the oppressed people of my country that this work could be accomplished. Therefore, this is a moment of great personal sense of gratification and fulfilment for me.

During these years there were quite a few people who constantly helped and encouraged me and shared with me my moments of anxiety. They are too many to mention their names and so I have to content myself by mentioning a few of them.

I am very much grateful to my research guide — Dr. U.B. Bhoite who selflessly spent hundreds of hours from his precious time for guiding my work. I am deeply thankful to Prof. D.N. Dhanagare, Head Deptt. of Sociology, University of Poona, who has been a source of constant help and encouragement.

For the completion of my work I have utilized the facilities in various public libraries in different parts of the world. I acknowledge their debt.
Some of my friends were kind enough to locate the reference materials—books and articles—and pass them on to me. Some looked after my material welfare when I was in foreign lands by providing me accommodation or by some other ways. I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude particularly to: Gertrud Muller, Petra and Wolfgang Lutz in Augsburg; Fariborz Jabbari in Berlin; Iran Shahriari Zohreh Hamzeh'ee and Mohsen Bahrami in Tehran; Farid Shahriari and Shirin Mohseni in Paris.

The help and cooperation of some of my friends has been of crucial importance in completing the organizational part of my work. Among them my hearty thanks are due to Regina Zitzelsberger and Georg Wagner in Augsburg and Pamela Fox in Pune.

Finally, I am thankful to my life comrade Isabel Haensch who in addition to her routine work at home and outside, travelled many kilometers every two weeks in a month for years to fetch books and articles for me. She has been a perennial source of encouragement to me.
