Acknowledgements

This space seems too small to express my gratitude to all those who have helped me to realize my long dream to write this thesis. At the outset, I express my profound gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Kuldeep Mathur whose consistent encouragement and expert advice have gone a long way in shaping my thesis. Without his patient and creative support I would not have been able to complete my work. Infact, he has enriched my knowledge with his invaluable suggestions and comments. My frequent interaction with him on various issues of problem has helped me in understanding the intricacies of the problem.

I am Profoundly grateful to Dr. Sudarshan Iyanger, Gujarat Institute of Development Studies, Ahmedabad Dr. Balgovind Baboo, Reader in Sociology, Utkal University, Bhubaneswar, Dr. A.B. Ota, Water Resources Department, Bhubaneswar and Dr. N.G. Jayal, CPS, JNU for giving me insight and encouraging me in completing this work.

I deeply admire the help of Sri N. Ahmed of Indravati Gana Sangharsha Parishad who took me to the Project site and spent days escorting me around the Indravati valley and displaced village's to see the devastating effect of displacement and poor resettlement measures.

I would also like to thank my friend Sri B.M. Bhuyan, ARRO, Sri I.M. Naik, LAO, Er. Dasarathi Nanda and other project officials for their assistance and motivation in collecting primary and secondary data.

Thanks are also due to the oustees of the new cluster of Kalahandi, Koraput and Nabarangpur who responded to our questions and provided valuable information.

A number of libraries rendered immensely useful services. I am grateful to the staffs of JNU Library, Indian Institute of public Administration Library, Indian Social Institute Library, Nehru Memorial Teen Murty Library and Parija Library, Utkal University for their assistance and cooperation to complete this work.

I am grateful to my family for their love, inspiration and sacrifice. I would like to thank my friends Jatin, Ramanath, Ajay, Giridhari, Biswaranjan, Pradeep and Nagbhushan for their moral support and enormous help when I needed them most.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India and Government of Orissa for providing financial support in preparation of this work.

The form in which the thesis has been presented and ideas expressed are of mine. Thus, I owe the entire responsibility for any shortcomings in this work.
