The thesis embodies the results of the research that I carried out under the guidance of Dr. H. D. Sankalia, Professor and Head of the Department of Archaeology, University of Poona and Joint Director, Deccan College Post-Graduate Research Institute, Poona, who very kindly suggested me this topic for investigation. In a way it represents a further stage in the pioneer work started by Sri Sivaramamurti, Dr. Moti Chandra and Dr. V.S. Agrawale and tries to reconstruct the cultural pattern of our ancient past in all its glory.

My first and foremost duty is to express my gratitude to my guru, Dr. H.D. Sankalia, for his guidance in the planning and execution of the work and for his help at every stage.

I am grateful to Sri M.N. Deshpande for his keen interest in my work and encouragement.

Dr. S.B. Deo and Dr. M.S. Mate, of the Deccan College, Poona, helped me with valuable suggestions. Sri M.S. Nagaraja Rao and Sri A.B. Jambhekar, research scholars, Deccan College, very kindly, but critically, went through the manuscript and helped me in many respects. To all these my sincerest thanks are due.

I am also thankful to Sri A.A. Dalvi, Artist and Sri S.H. Girme, Photographer, for preparing the illustrations; to Sri C.N. Ghumatkar for typing the thesis and Sri S.N. Ghumatkar for his help.

My grateful thanks are also due to my wife, Rekha, for help.

Poona.
