

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This form of formal acknowledgements should not be regarded merely as a thanks note; it is best portrayal I could attempt of my respect for those who have been indispensable accomplishments in writing this dissertation.

First of all I would like to express my profound veneration and deep sense of gratitude to my research guide and former Head, Department of Economics Prof. S. T. Sangle for instilling confidence in me through his inspirational words and providing me with invaluable comments and criticism on many issues throughout my research career. I will always be indebted to his for his constantly rendering timely advice and sparing valuable time as and when I required. I will always be indebted towards you 'sir' for giving me moral support which I required the most throughout my thesis work.

I proud to have eminent teachers, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. V. B. Bhise, Professor and Head of the Department of Economics, Dr. B. S. Mhaske, Dr. B. B. Kawade, Dr. A. B. Deogirikar, Dr. R. S. Solunke, Prof. Mrs. D. J. Mahajan and Dr. S. S. Narwade whose valuable guidance helped me to improve the research work in many ways. I also extend my thanks to faculty members in the Department of Economics Dr. A. S. Pawar, Dr. C. N. Kokate, Dr. P. V. Deshmukh and Dr. Mrs. Krutika Khandare for helping in my research work. I would like to express my deep gratitude to Late Prin. Santosh Mulavkar and Late Dongre Sir for their blessings and guidance to how to construct my career in better way.

I would like to offer my heartfelt thanks to my colleagues Dr. Vibhuti Patel, Professor and Head, Prof. K. S. Ingole, Prof. Veena Devasthali and Prof. Ruby Ojha for their cooperation and constant moral support throughout my research work.
