ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my profound gratitude to my research guide, Dr. V.Z.Sali, for his support and guidance throughout the research work and transitional stages of writing the dissertation.

My gratitude is extended to Prof. Dr. Sanjeev Sonwane, Head, Department of Education and Extension, University of Pune, who contributed to the conception and completion of my dissertation.

I would also like to thank the Principal and faculty at Tilak College of Education, Pune, who helped me grow as a researcher and develop new insights as a result of their instruction.

Much appreciation is expressed to my mother and father, who always believed in me and supported me with encouraging wisdom. I also express appreciation to my wife Madhuri, son Aditya and daughter Mrunmayee who supported me during my research work.

I am also grateful to the Headmasters of the schools in Pune city who allowed me in their schools for collecting the data from their students.

Finally, thanks to all those students who participated in my research study and allowed me the opportunity to understand the diversity of their interest and abilities in science.

Lastly, I must thank all those names, which are not mentioned here, but who contributed directly or indirectly in completing this work.
