Acknowledgements

I express my profound sense of gratitude to my revered supervisor and guide Prof. Indra Nath Mukherjee for his invaluable guidance, constant encouragement, constructive comments and keen interest in getting the crux of the study. Despite his tight academic/scholarly schedules, he went through all the drafts of each and every chapter giving valuable suggestions, and necessary corrections. I thank him for providing solutions to all my problems with prompt response and profound affection. Without his consistent help, this study would not have been possible. The idea of doing research on this topic originated from discussions with my supervisor and Dr D.K Giri.

I greatly acknowledge the goodwill and ready help I received directly or indirectly from Prof. Kalim Bahadur, Prof. Nancy Jetly, Dr. Mahendra P. Lama, Dr. P Sahadevan, Prof. Uma Singh, Dr. Savita Pandey and other academic and non-academic staff of South Asian Division of the Centre.

I owe a great deal to Shri RCM Reddy, Secretary, Textiles Committee, where I am presently employed. Mr Reddy allowed me to access all the relevant documents and data from the organization’s library and I also greatly benefited from in-depth discussions which gave this work a new sight. I also thank Dr P Nayak, Director and Mr. Pankaj Malik, Deputy Director of the same organization for their constant support.

I have greatly benefited from academic interactions with Prof. V.R. Panchamukhi, Director, Research and Information Systems for Non-Aligned Countries (RIS), Lodhi Road, Prof. Charan C. Wadhawa of Centre for Policy Research (CPR), Mr. O.P. Sharma of Planning Commission, Mr. D.K. Nair, Secretary General, Indian Cotton Mills Federation, and Mr. K.K. Jalan in the Ministry of Textiles.

I extend warm and sincere thanks to all the staff members of the libraries of Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), Regional Information Systems for Non-aligned Countries (RIS), Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations
(ICRIER), National Council for Applied Economic Research (NCAER), Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT), Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI), United Nations Information Centre (UNIC), World Bank and Centre for Policy Research (CPR) to name a few for providing me access to collection of books and materials in their respective libraries. I would personally like to thank Mr. Anil Patni of the European Union Delegation Office for making the European Union Publications readily available for consultation.

I would like to place on record the help I received from Dr Nawal Kishore in understanding the various statistical and econometric models which I have used extensively in my work. I take this opportunity to thank my best friend and husband Shekhar for having extended his loving and affectionate support and encouragement and sharing with me my anxieties and joys in every stage of the work. I also acknowledge support and help of my colleagues and friends in Textiles Committee particularly R Y Shewale, Srinivas Singh and Sushil Kumar for their constructive involvement enhancing the quality of my work. My sincere thanks are also due to my friends Pramod, Sharat, Nalin, Dr Pravin Jha and Smita Gupta who encouraged me throughout my study.

My greatest debt is to my family for having extended immediate responses to all my timely and untimely demands with utmost affection providing me constant encouragement and moral support. I owe special thanks to my mother, Kiran, Vipin Anupam, Anurag and my Jijajis - Neerad and Puneet for bearing with me all the troubles and supporting me all along.

However, I take the entire responsibility of any error or omission in the study.

Jawaharlal Nehru University
New Delhi

(Milan Sharma)