

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me great pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to ✓ Dr. N. S. Narasimhan for his keen interest, inspiring guidance and helpful criticism which have been of inestimable value to me.

I am very much indebted to Professor H. J. Arnikar, Ph.D., D.Sc. (State, Paris), University Professor and Head of the Department of Chemistry, University of Poona for providing necessary facilities and for his keen interest in this work. I am grateful to Dr. U. Scheidegger of Varian Associates for 100 Mc spectra and decoupling experiments.

I am thankful to all my colleagues, particularly Dr. M.V.Paradkar, for their ready co-operation.
