First of all I express my gratitude to my guide Dr. Ujjwala Panse, whose effective guidance, valuable suggestions and continued inspirations helped me complete the work in time. Throughout she has not only been a guide but a great source of help and inspiration.

I am grateful to all my teachers who have contributed to my academic growth right since my primary school.

I am indeed indebted to Prof. V.N. Jha, Director, Centre of Advanced Study in Sanskrit, University of Poona, whose instructions and timely suggestions helped me in achieving my target, and giving proper shape to ideas.

A great deal of inspirations and encouragement came from a large number of my friends. I thank them all for the same.

I can not but record my sincere thanks to Dr. P.C. Sahoo, who has been instrumental in giving me a proper mental shape, which I consider the most important thing during the course of my work.

My parents have been always a source of inspiration for me. Any mention of gratitude would hardly mean anything. They are the ones to whom the greatest credit of my work goes.

My thanks are also due to all the office and library staffs of C.A.S.S., who helped me in a number of ways.

Lastly I place my work at the feet of my beloved "Guru" Thākur Anukul Chandra, whose blessings have helped the work see the light of the day.
