

Acknowledgments

This research project would never have materialized without my guiding professor Dr. Parminder Singh's help and encouragements all the way, from drafting of the initial prospectus to the revisions of each chapter. I wish to express my gratitude to him for being such a helpful and conscientious adviser. I would like to thank my husband, Er. Ramandeep Singh Bains, not only for his continued support and encouragement throughout my experience, but for being a patient sounding board for ideas that he is far less interested in than I am. In particular: I am much indebted to Dr. Mrs. Manjit Kaur Johal, not only for her willingness to step in and provide much-needed assistance on short notice, but for serving as a frequent proof reader. Thank You doesn't seem enough but it is said with much respect and gratitude to you for your valuable advice in my work.

I have to thank my mom Mrs Jasbir Kaur and dad Er. Devinder Singh Gill who continuously inspired and pushed me as a writer. The impact you both have had on my life, and not just this thesis, cannot be measured. Thank you so much for your guidance, wisdom, overwhelming generosity and patience. I thank my mother-in-law Mrs Amarjeet Kaur Bains, father-in-law Bhupinder Singh Bains and entire in-law family for cooperating me in whatever possible way to finish this task. It is also a pleasure to mention my good friend, Preety Khullar for her valuable help and support.

I would also like to extend my genuine gratitude to the other faculty members of the Department for their valuable guidance. I am thankful to all library staff members of the Department of English, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, for their help and cooperation.

The last words of this page go to my son Adab Pratap whose cheerful face kept my morale high and also inspired me to work hard to finish this research. Writing a thesis can be a strenuous undertaking, but I have never wanted for input or reassurance. Thank you all.
