A NOTE OF GRATITUDE

C.P.K. Tharakan,
Professor of English,
University of Kerala (Retd.)

Trivandrum, 26-1-1974.

It was a great privilege for me to have worked under Sri C.P.K. Tharakan, Professor (Retd.), Department of English, University of Kerala, for the last seven years, whose gracious personality and great scholarship have left an everlasting impression on my mind. I am deeply indebted to him for helping me to enter into the spirit of the subject of this thesis THE IMPACT OF ENGLISH ON MALAYALAM POETRY, prepared by N. Viswanathan, M.A., Research student, working under my supervision, is his own independent work written with the help of my advice and suggestions from time to time. No part of the thesis has earlier been submitted for any degree.

My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. C. Rajan, Sociologist and Prof. V. Kameswaran, who kindly allowed us to explore the personal libraries of Raman and Gollan and Changampuzha respectively.

University College.
Trivandrum - 1.

N. Viswanathan.
Professor of English.