ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

On the completion of this work, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to the Government of Vietnam that allowed me to go to India for study; and I am thankful to the Government of India as well as the country of India where I was been allowed to dwell for a long time to study.

I am very grateful to Dr. Rajashree Mohadikar, my supervisor, who always kindly encouraged and helped for my research work, without her good guidance, the work would not have been fruitfully.

I am also thankful to Dr. Kanchan Mande, Head of the Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit Languages, who gave me facilities to undertake the present study.

I am grateful to Dr. Shailaja Bapat, the then Head of the Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit Languages, who welcomed and kindly helped me initial official enrolment for my research work in Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit Languages. She is an enthusiastic teacher always encouraged and helped me in study and research.

In my achievement, I respect and am deeply grateful to my Master, Most. Venerable Thich nu Dieu Thanh, the Abbess of Tinh-Duc pagoda, who is my spirit master for the Truth Dharma life. She is always kind encouraging and allowed me to go to abroad for study.

I, from the bottom of my heart, am grateful to Dr. Ky Van Tran and others who supported my financially for studying during the time in India. Without their help this work would not have been completed.
Simultaneously, I also express my thanks, to the authorities of the Library of Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit Languages, Library of the Philosophy Department, Women centre library, the Jayakar library, University of Pune for extending facilities to my research work. I am thankful to the state of the Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit Languages and University authorities for extending the help.

Last but not the least; I do not forget to express my gratitude to authors of books, and all necessary materials which deal with the topic of the thesis.

Finally, I am thankful to all the eminent scholars, whose books and translations I have availed myself of in my own research.
