ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Even though this is the smallest chapter of my thesis, it is the most important one as without acknowledging the role these people played in my life at different times during the course of my Ph. D., this thesis would never be complete.

I would like to thank Ahura Mazda for all that I have achieved in life so far. I thank him for steering me through all times, good and bad, for giving me the strength to bear my joys and sorrows lightly and for showing me light when I was groping in darkness. It was as if He was always around to guide me over the path of righteousness and progress.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt appreciation and deepest gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Akhil C. Banerjea, without whose able guidance and inexhaustible support, this work would not have been possible. His strive for excellence helped to bring out the best in me. I would also like to thank him for being very patient and understanding.

I am grateful to Dr. Sandip K. Basu, Director, IIJ for giving me an opportunity to work in one of the best scientific institutes in the country.

A special word of thanks to the members of my Doctoral Committee, Dr. J. K. Deb (IIT), Dr. J. K. Batra, Dr. Amitabh Mukhopadhyay and Dr. Satish M. Jotey for their valuable suggestions and critical review of the progress of my work.

I would like to thank my labmates Samitabh, Ritu, Shweta, Shankar, Arunugam, Nandhini, Kumaravelli, Shanmugsundaram and all the others who have been a part of this Lab and made the working atmosphere so much lively. I would like to thank members of Virology Lab who at times have helped me with my work. I would like to thank Scherezade and Shanaya for helping me out with my thesis.

Time and again during the course of my Ph. D. I have had the privilege of having some wonderful people as friends. They have shared with me my joys and sorrows, stood by me when I needed them most and heard me out when I had something to say. I would like to thank them for all the good times I’ve had with them over a cup of tea. No matter where they are today and no matter how we part, I shall always remember them as my friends. Neetha, Omita, Vipra, Patrali, Shikha, Gunjan, Hemchand (my roommate), Vanitha, Gayatri, Deepak Nair, Deepti, Jyoti, Rupinder, Konark, Kumaran, Yogesh, Parshuraman, Monika, Malancha, Chhabi, Subhojit and Lakshmy. I hope I haven’t missed out anyone.

I would like to thank Mr. Abhilesh K. Agarwal for his kind help in academic matters.

Thanks to Rawatji and Rajkumarji for helping me carry out my work uninterrupted with all the technical assistance they could provide.

Dear Mum and Dad, today as I look back on my life I thank God for the wonderful parents he gave me. I owe my success in life to both of you and my grandma and I can’t find the right words to tell you what you mean to me. God bless you both and I hope and pray that I can be to my children what you have been to me. Peace and happiness be with you always....
